

SUBURBAN BUSINESS LEADERS

To submit materials to this column, please send a brief biographical summary along with a black-and-white photo, if possible, to: Business Editor, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150.

Janice E. Murray, CPA, has joined Jay Alix & Associates as an associate of the suburban Detroit-based firm of corporate turnaround and debt restructuring consultants and insolvency & investigative accountants.

Murray will specialize in financial analysis, plan of reorganization development, insolvency or deceptive practices reviews and expert witness testimony.

Daniel J. Fagan has assumed the position of Integration Consultant at Megasource, Inc., a provider of computer software and consulting services to the healthcare industry, headquartered in Bloomfield Hills.

He is responsible for highly specialized communications programming, planning and implementation and product development.

Also at Megasource, Paul A. Helmut has assumed the position of Project Leader MSIM-PAQ. He is responsible for the overall software development and software support of the MSIM-PAQ product.

Clare Horwood of Birmingham has been named director, UNICER Greeting Card Division, for the State of Michigan. Horwood recently retired from Ford Motor Company in May, 1991, where he coordinated and administered numerous Fund Drives for the Vice President of Purchasing at Ford. After his retirement, Mr. Horwood spent 17 months as a Volunteer for UNICER in charge of their Corporate/Professional Greeting Card Program.

W. B. Doner & Company has named Craig Picchura senior vice president/creative director. Picchura joined Doner in January 1983 as a copywriter. He was promoted to vice president/creative group supervisor in 1987, and named a senior vice president in 1991. Since joining Doner, Picchura has worked on a variety of accounts including The Iams Company, Vinsic Foods, Chiquita Brands International, BP Oil International, and the Michigan Humane Society.

In a year when the world map has seen more changes than ever, one member of the American Society of Travel Agents has proven his world geography and culture knowledge above all others. Richard Judy, co owner of DeFod Travel Service in Birmingham, Mich., recently earned the World Explorer title in the final round of competition at ASTNs World Travel Congress in Cairo, Egypt.

Birmingham resident Nancy Sanborn was recently promoted to vice president/account supervisor of strategic planning, servicing the Cadillac account at D'Arcy Masius Benton & Bowles/Bloomfield Hills advertising agency. Prior to joining DMB&B/BH four months ago as an account supervisor, Sanborn spent five years as a marketing manager for the Buick Motor Division of General Motors.

Betty L. Lowenthal of West Bloomfield, a partner at the Bloomfield Hills law firm Buesser, Buesser, Blank, Lynch, Fryhoff and Graham, has been appointed chairperson of the State Bar of Michigan's Standing Committee on Grievance.

The committee monitors the internal rules of the Attorney Grievance Commission, Attorney Discipline Board and the Judicial Tenure Commission.

Robert Hogan has been appointed as Market Research Specialist for Contract Interiors, Inc., a Southfield based, full-service office furniture dealer. Bob's responsibilities include identifying target markets, lead generation, and follow-up programs for the sales groups.

Also at Contract Interiors,

Todd Kissel of Northville has joined as an Account Executive for the Business Development Group. Todd's primary responsibility is to generate new business with small and mid-market clients.

Lynn D. Daggott has been named Administrative Manager at Morris & Berke, the Bingham Farms, Michigan-based commercial leasing and property management firm.

As Administrative Manager, Daggott is responsible for lease administration, collections and budget preparation and coordination.

Marshall J. Wiese and Gayle E. Leipsitz have joined Kessler & Associates, Inc., in Farmington Hills.

Michael J. Barger and Nancy Hudson of Mike's Tree Surgeons, Inc. in Troy recently demonstrated professional competency by successfully completing the Certified arborist examinations administered through the International Society of Arboriculture (ISA) and the Michigan Chapter of the ISA.

The purpose of the ISA certification program is to improve the level of knowledge and standard of practices within the tree care profession.

Joseph Nowak of Dearborn has been appointed executive vice president, trim operations, and Richard Borghi of Rochester Hills has been named vice president, luggage carrier operations, at Huron St. Clair, a subsidiary of Masco Industries.

In his new position, Nowak will be responsible for trim manufacturing operations, as well as the engineering, purchasing and sales support for the body trim product line. He was previously vice president operations at Huron St. Clair.

Prior to his appointment, Richard Borghi served as director of operations at Huron St. Clair's Port Huron facility.

Charles F. Dennis has joined Atlantic Underwriters in Birmingham as Vice President. Dennis brings successful marketing and management experience with leading insurance carriers — including the past eleven years with AIG.

Luckenbach Ziegelman and Partners Inc. in Birmingham has elected Timothy J. Zawodny, AIA, as associate of the firm.

Zawodny earned his Bachelor of Architecture from the University of Detroit in 1985 and joined Luckenbach Ziegelman and Partners in 1985. He has served as a design and project architect on many key facilities, such as the Michigan National Corporation Headquarters Building in Farmington Hills, Chester Street Parking Structure in Birmingham and most recently the new $30 million headquarters building for the W.K. Kellogg Foundation in Battle Creek.

Mauriello Kohn, of Rochester Hills, has been named a principal of The Leiko Group, a leading company in the field of financial analysis, providing litigation support and business valuation services.

Kohn joined the firm in 1988 as a valuation analyst. Previously, he was a financial analyst involved in acquisitions and syndications with Valley Property Management Company, in Farmington.

Gall M. Truax of the Peterson-Knecht Insurance Agency in Farmington Hills recently was awarded the designation of Certified Professional Service Representative (CPSR) for Commercial Lines, after successfully completing a rigorous education program administered by the Professional Independent Insurance Agents of Michigan (PIIAM).

Rodell L. Johnson, LUTCF, has been promoted to sales manager in the Redford district office of American General Life and Accident Insurance Company, located at Vanguard Center, Suite 140, 23800 West 10 Mile Road in Southfield.

Johnson began his career with the company as an agent in 1977.
