level of customer satisfaction at Ford Motor Co. Allied-Signal Automotive's Filter and Spark Plug Group in Southfield has received a Customer Satisfaction Award from Ford's Parts and Service Division for outstanding performance in supplying Motorcraft spark plugs during the last several years. Allied-Signal is the only supplier outside the Ford organization to receive the award this year. Allied-Signal Automotive earned the award by demonstrating outstanding delivery of high-quality Motorcraft spark plugs within Ford's established lead times. Quickie Printing & Copy Shop, which has operated a store in Birmingham since 1989, recently completed an expansion which will enable it to handle virtually any size commercial or quick-print job. The independently-owned, full service printing operation also recently became more visible for customers, moving to a storefront space in its building on South Adams in Birmingham. Among the equipment Quickie recently added to: An offset press, which provides high-quality solids and halftones, as well as quality color process work; A Polar programmable cutter, to enable extremely quick and accurate cutting; A Stahl folder, with a right angle unit, which facilitates a variety of folds at a speed of up to 18,000 per hour; and A Heidelberg 10-by-16 windmill for in-house numbering, perforation, scoring, die cuts and blind embossing. Previous to the expansion, Quickie served mostly customers with quick-print needs. The firm's expansion means Quickie can produce in-house, one- to four-color pieces and can offer negative and plate, numbering, perforation and scoring services to other printers as well as to individual customers.
