

Rosle Rags: Money raised from sales of Rosie Rags prod cts will be donated to the Variety Club. The Variety Club of Great Britain donates money to charities worldwide to help handicapped and underprivileged children.

Rosie dolls help kids' charities

Rosie Rags wears her heart on her sleeve. Literally. But Rosie Rags, a rag doll being sold by F&M stores nationwide, including the Fermington Hills store, wears a heart on her sleeve to teach children to share their feellurs.

to teach children to source con-feelings.
"It has a lot of meaning," said Patty Klein, vice president of marketing for the Warren-based chain. "Parents can know that it's not just another toy, but they're contributing to children's chari-ties."
Money raised from sales of Ro-sie Rags products will be donated to the Variety Club.
