Mrs. E. Chabut Day was held on June 14, in the Wooddale Elementary School. Mrs. Chabut has been with the school a number of years and has resigned. She is moving to Arizona and will continue to teach.

As a tribute to this wonderful teacher, each of the 520 children were the "Happy Faces" pin made especially for this occasion. The Wooddale PTA presented Mrs. Chabut with an orchid corsage and all sixth grade students presented her with two charms for the bracelet which she received at a dinner party held in her honor last Sunday in the home of Mrs. B. Ellis. The bracelet was a gift from all the teachers and administration of Wooddale.

Hiner, treasurer, Fran York, membership, Millie Giles, safety-health, Betty Rice, publicity, M. Barbara, PTA representative, Shirley Haviland, hospitality, Sally Vickory and Merry Davis. James Westen will remain as teacher representative.

School is out and for this season and the sailing season is in full swing.

Kimberly Tells Bike Winners

About 100 bikes filled the streets of Kimberly North recently for the subdivision's second annual Flag Day bike parade.

While on the subject of Wooddale, the PTA held an election of officers at their last meeting. Heading the list are: Keith Deacon, president; John Slossar, father vice president; Pat Tipton, mother vice president; secretary, Ann

First prize winners in the bike decoration contest were: Donna A. Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Campbell of 5529 Normanhurst; Danny Scully, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Scully of 5524 Normanhurst; and Mark Burwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burwell of 7155 Edinborough.

Other first prize winners were: Shelley Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Stanley of 5533 Norththe; John and Karen Zellerbach, children of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zellerbach of 5574 Castleton.

Judges were Farmington Township Supervisor Earl Teeples and Gary Lichtman, member of the Farmington Board of Education.

ECONOMY MODEL -- This 1901 Oldsmobile, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cox of 22800 Middle Belt, Farmington, has a one-cylinder engine with a top speed of 25 m.p.h. but will travel 90 miles on one gallon of gas. The Cox's, owners of the Flamingo Trailer Park in Farmington Township, drove the vehicle for the first time in a parade on Memorial Day in Farmington. (Everphoto)

Herbert C. Long Sr. of Grand River Ave., Detroit, remains on the critical list at Mt. Carmel Hospital. He is in room 477, bed two.

My news columns will be briefer for a while as I am spending most of the time with my husband in Mt. Carmel.

One news item is that Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cope of Muskegon recently visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edge T. Cope of Farmington, and while here attended the opera "Fanny."

The next morning, they returned to Muskegon taking Edge Cope with them to spend the weekend. On Thursday, a daughter, Mrs. Charles Barber, arrived from Greenwich, Conn., and she and Mrs. Cope left for a tour of the lower peninsula.

They had a day in Traverse City, stopped at the Shanty Creek Lodge for a night and arrived in Mackinac to see the parade and pageant celebrating the history of Fort Michilimackinac. They then crossed the ferry to Mackinac Island and stayed in the Grand Hotel.

After a tour of the island on Sunday, they returned to Muskegon to pick up Mr. Cope and returned to Farmington with Mrs. Barber returning to Connecticut.

Dick and Marie France are back from an exciting combination business and pleasure trip to the Orient.

May 7 they flew to Honolulu where they visited friends they have not seen for 17 years who now live there. Then they went on to Tokyo, Osaka, Taiwan, Hong Kong, and back to Osaka.

While at Taipei on Taiwan they had a delightful evening which they spent at dinner with a grandson of Chang Kai Chek. This grandson is a very enterprising businessman in Taipei. They flew home from Osaka on May 27.

The Civic Association president, Chuck Owen, spoke at the last meeting saying that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss the possible black topping of our streets. He then turned the meeting over to the paving committee. It is my understanding that, as of this writing, the necessary 51 per cent requesting this black topping has not been obtained.

The PEO is a worldwide organization and Pat McGrath has been president of local chapter K only.

SENIOR CITIZENS SOCIAL CLUB
Friday, June 25, at noon the Senior Citizens Social Club of Farmington will meet in the social room of the First United Methodist Church of Farmington. Bring a sandwich. A social afternoon with cards will follow the business meeting.

Due to the popularity of the tennis program, the Farmington Community Center has set up two new classes. Adults, Tuesday and Thursday morning, 8 - 9:30 for three weeks starting June 22. Young people fill through ninth grade 11 a.m. to noon on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for three weeks. Fee: $16.

Adult class will receive nine hours of instruction. The same as other classes but each session will be 1 1/2 hours instead of one hour starting June 21. Still room in teen class, Monday, Wednesday and Thursday, 8-9 a.m. as of this writing, starting June 21. Don't hesitate to call the Center at 474-2990 about any classes. Registration continues throughout the session. The brochure lists classes in guitar taught by Judy Orsini for beginners on Tuesdays and Fridays beginning June 22 for young people age nine through ten years. For those who cannot take a class in guitar during the day, there will be classes taught by Tim Hoy on Tuesdays and Thursdays in the evening beginning June 29.

There are still openings in the following classes being offered at the Center: cane weaving, landscape painting, macramé, nature study, gymnastics for adults and teens, story time for tots, sewing and drapery making. Get out the datebook and jot down the following. Special event this summer is a "Summer Theatre Workshop" directed by Eileen Miller. An initial meeting will be held Monday, June 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Center to discuss the project. Junior and senior high school students of the Farmington Area who are interested in any phase of theatrical work; performing, make-up, costumes, scenery or properties, are invited to participate.

On Monday, June 28, at 8 p.m. the Naturalists Club will meet in the Center. Hartley Thornton will be the featured speaker and the program will be on amphibians and reptiles (live). Everyone is welcome.

NURSING HOME BAZAAR

Friday, June 25, from 1-5 p.m. Farmington Nursing Home at 30405 Folsom, Farmington, will hold its third annual bazaar. All items shown will be made by the patients. Also, the home's June birthday party will be held on June 21 at 2 p.m.
