

POLICE/FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Farmington-area police incidents, fire calls and court cases reported during the past week.

ARMED ROBBERY
An armed robbery at Max and Ernie's restaurant on Orchard Lake Jan. 9 netted two men $1,740 in cash. A 30-year-old employee told police she had gone into the restaurant and answered the service bell at 7:10 a.m. when two men forced their way in, held her at gunpoint and demanded money. One man was described as black, age 24, 6-feet tall, wearing a gold parka and light brown baggy pants. The other, also black, was described as being 24 and 6-feet as well. She couldn't describe his clothing. After the robbery, the men told the employee to stay in the office for 15 minutes. After they left, she called police. Both carried heavy, blue duffel bags. One held her at gunpoint while the other stayed downstairs to keep watch and wore a stocking over his head. An employee at a nearby bank reported seeing a white, four-door, 1980s car parked at the restaurant during the time of the robbery.

BURGLARY
Coins, jewelry and a shotgun of undetermined value were reported missing after a burglary in Farmington between Jan. 3-10. The perpetrator(s) came in through a backdoor.

VEHICLE THEFTS
An attempted auto theft caused $750 in damage and the loss of an AM/FM radio and cassette player from a white 1993 GMC Jimmy on Jan. 8. Farmington Hills Police reported the steering column and dash had been damaged in the incident at the United Artists Theatre on Grand River. An attempted theft of a 1991 Chevy Blazer also parked at the United Artists Theatre on Grand River on Jan. 8 caused $750 in damage. A white male, described as 5 feet 8 and 120 pounds with blond hair is a suspect. The driver's side window was broken, the steering column was pried open and a door was kicked in, Farmington Hills Police report.

VANDALISM
The windshield and passenger-side window of a 1983 green Ford Mustang parked on Fort Sumpter in Farmington Hills on Jan. 8 were broken causing $500 in damage.

FRAUD
Police are investigating missing money from the Wendy's restaurant on 10 Mile in Farmington Hills. The manager said $1,918 turned up missing after reported receipts of $2,131.51 turned out to be a deposit of only $215.51. A Detroit woman, 36, was arrested and charged with retail fraud Jan. 10 after a shoplifting incident at T.J. Maxx in Farmington. Store security officers told police they saw a woman concealing shoes and a red dress in a purse and later hid a white dress in her jacket. When approached by security, the person dropped the shoes and fled eastbound on Grand River in a black van waiting in the parking lot. Police later pulled over the van driven by a white female, who said she took the passenger to exchange some Christmas gifts and was released at the scene. A search did not turn up any of the stolen items.

THEFTS
Hunting equipment and other items worth $855 were stolen from a white 1988 Chevy Sportvan parked in a driveway on Purdue in Farmington Hills between Jan. 7-8. A compound bow, hunting and target arrows, cassette tapes, a Makita saw, black backpack, binoculars and a flashlight were among the stolen items. A purse and its contents, valued at $1,634, were stolen from a 1992 Ford Taurus parked on Inkster in Farmington Hills between 2-3 p.m. The purse, a pearl ring, designer sunglasses, a calculator and cash were among the items taken.

Farmington Hills Police said $1,870 in tools were stolen after a 1987 Chevy Astro on Belfast was broken into on Jan. 7. The minivan's rear door window was broken, causing $100 in damage, and a Milwaukee saw, two tool boxes and a Makita cordless drill were stolen.

Tools valued at $225 were stolen from another vehicle on Belfast between Jan. 7-8. A saw and a drill were stolen from a 1977 Ford.

Money from the manager's office was stolen at about 10 p.m. on Jan. 8 at the Comfort Inn on 12 Mile in Farmington Hills. The manager had left $364.65 in the office and gone upstairs to buy a pop. When he returned, the money was missing.

A CD changer and 10 CDs valued at $550 were stolen from a 1991 Chevy Camaro on Kenlock in Farmington Hills on Jan. 9. The driver's side window was broken, causing $200 in damage. A portable telephone and garage door opener remote valued at $1,200 were stolen from a red 1982 Toyota parked at the Ramblewood Manor Homes on Indian Trail in Farmington Hills between Jan. 8-9.

A Toro Snowblower valued at $300 was stolen from the Carrington Place Apartments on Freedom Road in Farmington Hills between Jan. 8-9.

Items worth $5,160 were stolen from a 1986 gray Mercury parked on Glenmoor in Farmington Hills Jan. 9. CDs valued at $5,000, a CD adapter valued at $50, headphones valued at $70 and a flashlight were among items stolen.

Power and hand tools valued at $3,000 were stolen from a 1979 Ford van between Jan. 9-10 outside of Hartford and Racine in Farmington. Perpetrators pried open a sliding door on the passenger side. A spare tire and wheel were also stolen from a van parked at the rear of the building.

Victim offers reward

A Farmington Hills resident wants to do something about vandalism. Merrill Budon is offering a reward of $250 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of whoever broke three windows in a 1985 Honda parked in the driveway at 28070 Forestbrook near 12 Mile and Inkster in Farmington Hills. The incident took place Dec. 23 at about 12:20 a.m.

"I just think there has to be something done to stop this," Budon said. "I think this could be kids doing this. Maybe word will get around and they'll think about this." Budon described the car as full-sized with rectangular lights. Anyone with information can call, anonymously if desired, to Sgt. Paul Cavan of the Farmington Hills Police at 473-9593.
