We didn't want to tie, we were going for the win," Holowicki said. "We had hoped to get the hall to farin for three because he was red-hot today." Junior pard Andy Slankster dipped in with 15 points for the Shamrecks, including a three-point shot that beat the buzzer to end the third quarter, pulling CC to within a pair, 54-52. He also gave Ca brief 59-58 advantage with 511 left, converting a three-point play after an acrobatic tip-in. 3 senior, also came off the bench to score 11 for the Shamrocks. "Bernie's team is well-conched, and they ran a lot of good plays," Donahue said. "They're fierce competitors. "And we know Paluk would have to play a greet game for them to beat us and he did. He's a fine player, and you have to take yourhet off to him."
