and she moved her father back to Michigan from Florida. And, remarkably, the Christ Child Society raised over $91,000 this year under her reign."

Kathy was presented with a three-dimensional photo of Superwoman skiing, gardening and biking, with Kathy's head pasted onto that of "body double" Pat Harbor.

Mike Sheehan, hobbling on crutches, was nominated as "Good Sport of the Year," by past-president Pam Grey, for his performances in "The Man Behind the Woman," "Dinner Comes Late, If Dinner Comes at All" and "The Phone Never Stops Ringing."

Others in attendance were Marilyn Neumann (Christ Child Society's 1993 Woman of the Year), Fran Giegler of Christ Child House, Joann and Lou Baughman, Tom Hardy, Joyce and Case Koremam, Mary Ellen Crane and Theresa Ablar.

Christ Child's "Pour Les Enfants" spring fashion show will be held Thursday, April 1, at the Troy Marriott, with fashions from Saks. The annual golf outing at Western Golf & Country Club is slated for Tuesday, June 8. Call 591-0185 for reservations.

Auction action

The opening scene of "The Phantom of the Opera" takes you to an auction house filled with treasures and collectibles where the infamous chandelier and the "Masquerade" music box sell for a song.

That same auction mystique awaits you the last Saturday of every month at Sadows Auction Gallery in Clarkston.

From miniature Russian enamel boxes to an impressive Chippendale mahogany dining room table and eight chairs, Sadows Auction Gallery is filled with antiques and must-haves. "Our first auction of 1993 featured heavily carved Chinese Rosewood chairs, an inlaid French table, a carved English partners desk, outdoor bronze fountains, Venetian mirrors, gold and diamonds jewels and a collection of European cut crystal," said Paul Sadow.

Orthodontist Ron Iacobelli and wife Lisa got caught in a bidding duel for a Japanese jewelry box and European crystal vase. While friends Steve and Michele MacWilliams (president of Metro Media public relations) were top bidders on a signed, oil on canvas.

"Packed away in the quiet village of Clarkston, the family-owned business is Oakland County's best-kept secret. Sadows' annual estate-jewelry auction and fur sale (held in December) is now receiving so much attention that reservations are needed."

"What do we start this bid on for a pair of large bronze outdoor urns that will hold the ashes of the Dallas Cowpokes?" auctioneer Paul Sadow asked. His humorous nature, and fast-paced bidding keeps the night moving. Charismatic wife Carolyn and three sons Ron, Jeff and PJ keep the auction items coming and going. For information on February's auction call 625-7755.

That girl

Only Susan Sosnick would think of holding a Haven luncheon benefit at her home with four-time Emmy Award winner Mario Thomas. The actress, producer, social activist and wife of silver fox Phil Donahue will be guest of honor at the Sosnick luncheon at 11:30 a.m. Friday, Feb. 12. The benefit for Haven is a national, with Mario being the founding director of the MS Foundation for Women and Children and a member of the board of the National Women's Political Caucus.

For luncheon tickets call Betty Jean Rivkin at 394-1284.

Heart Ball

Jo Anne Barry, JoAnn Dunham and Judith Wycho are chairing the sixth annual Heart Ball on Saturday at the Ritz Carlton, Dearborn. The evening includes cocktails, silent auction, dinner and dancing to the music of the Detroit All Stars. Tickets are $150 and $300. Call 557-3500 Nancy Brown for further information.

Shining a light

Former Pontiac resident, now New York playwright, Philip Hayes Dean met with Patty Dean-Phillips of Lighthouse before the benefit performance of his new play "Freeman," which is playing at the recently renovated Strand Theater in Pontiac.

The 1971 Drama Desk Award winner spoke to the supporters of Lighthouse during the afterglow of Friday night's benefit, and recalled his teenage years in Pontiac.

The Lighthouse staff is so efficient that at the recent press luncheon for Phillip Dean, carry-out lunches ordered for board members and fund-raising volunteers were given away to low-income clients in need of emergency food. A great way for a reporter to start a diet.

Cinderella Ball

At the recent invitation-addressing, at the home of Bettina Gregg, excitement was in the air. The oldest on-going charity ball is scheduled for Friday, Feb. 13, at the Westin Hotel in Detroit. The Winter Palace theme is a black-tie benefit for the American Lung Association and is chaired by Carole Larson Wendzel (who also chaired the recent McEadden Michigan Opera Theatre bash) and Sybil Jaques.

Committee members include Vicky Kulis, Maggie Altesee, Karen Kremer, Arlene Brow who is working on the winter wonderland fantasy decor, Betty Jean Rivkin, Joann Wells, Ginger Dery, Teri Tietmeyer, Queeno Sarikislan, Jacque Mularoni, Betty Bright, American Lung Association president Rita Margherio and Irene Davis.

To reserve a seat to this black-tie fancy ball, call Mary Ellen Mumy at 559-5100.

Going once: Going twice, sold, by Carolynn and Paul Sadow at their high-impact auction spectacular Saturday.

Nostalgia time: Attorneys Lauren Nurwitz and Michael Jacobson flash back to the '70s for Orchard Children's Services.

Last hurra! Pat Hardy (left) presents Kathy Sheehan with a presidential tribute to the "outgoing" president of the Christ Child Society.

Here's Marlo: That girl — Marlo Thomas — will attend a benefit luncheon Friday, Feb. 12, for the Haven, in Pontiac.
