

GOING TO THE DOGS can be fun, especially when it's Observer photographer Harry Mauthe going to a dog show. He came back with these pictures after visiting a display of 100 breeds of purebred dogs held over the weekend in the Tel-Twelve Mall in Southfield. In the first picture Beverly Scott of Royal Oak is shown with Joey, a Yorkshire terrier, who has won a batch of ribbons and is owned by Lori O'Bannon of Southfield. Robby Tresh of Westland went all the way to Southfield to make a friend. The cocker is Mari-beau's Musical Yo-Yo, owned by Marion Bebeau. Robby's mother also raises cockers. And looking over the humans who came to the show are Beverly Scott's dog, Abba, an American-Canadian champion bull mastiff, and Joey. The show was sponsored by the Dog Breeders of Michigan, Inc.
