

Performances of "Six Degrees of Separation," at the George Burns Theatre for the Performing Arts in Livonia continue through Feb. 14. For ticket information, call 800-589-8000 or Ticketmaster, 313-645-6666.

"Trashy, obscene, disgusting, pornographic"—these are words my audience—Observer & Eccentric readers, used to describe "Six Degrees of Separation," starring Marlo Thomas and Ned Schmidtke.

Lots of people left before the show ended. The theater got calls, and added "for mature audiences only," to the marquee last Thursday.

There were children in the audience, some as young as 7, some in their teens. Outraged parents wanted to know why theater isn't rated like movies. Outraged

The play is funny and serious. It forces the audience to consider different ways they are separated.

Serenade to

Like the abstract, two-sided painting by Wassily Kandinsky that hangs over stage, it is a reminder that things aren't always what they seem, and that there are two sides to every story.

Quartets from the chorus will be performing "Singing Valentines," in homes and offices throughout the area. The $25 cost includes a silk rose, and tape o

Serenade your sweetie in four-part harmony by reserving a quartet 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Feb. 12 and 13, and noon to 9 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 14.

Performances of the Theatre Guild production of "Two Rooms" continues through Feb. 20 at the Theatre Guild playhouse in Redford. For ticket information call the box office at 538-5678.

If you doubt that we live in a global village, then you should see the Theatre Guild's engrossing production of "Two Rooms." Playwright Lee Blessing gives us four riveting characters caught up in that odious phenomenon of recent taking.

Charles Van Hoose is excellent as the teacher (Michael Wells) in Beruit, who learns from his captors. We see why powerless people with longstanding grievances are capable of the most heinous crimes. Perhaps his best moments, however, are recalling the simple pleasures of touching, feeling, seeing and experiencing

David Rago is a bit frenzied at times as the reporter, (Walker Harris) but he does epitomize those in the press with limitless distrust of government, and boundless desire to get the story — no matter the pain and suffering to those involved. In this case

But what if there is a miscalculation. On our part. Or theirs? What if hope is really illusion? What are ordinary citizens to do when caught up in global events beyond their control. There are no easy answers, but the Theatre Guild's "Two Rooms" gives a human dimension to what other
