Shamrocks, WLAA teams district wrestling champs

Three area schools have advanced into the Class A team regional wrestling tournament. Livonia Stevenson, Westland John Glenn and Redford Catholic Central all won district titles last week Wodnesday.

Stevenson, coached by Don Berg, ran its overall record to 9-2 and captured its first district title in the school's history. The young Spartans swept host Red-ford Union (93-30) in the cham-pionship final and Livonia pionship final and Livonis Franklin (43-27) in the semifi-nals.

"I extremely pleased with my sophomores, they wrestled hard," Berg said. Freahman Dave Popenay (119) gave Stevenson a lift when his pinned RU's Ryan Ghedotte in 5:10.

"He's been wrestling JV for us, but he came through and gave us a big lift," Berg said. The Spartans advanced to Wednesday's four-team regional at South Lyon.

Stevenson will face Western Lakes Acvities Association champ Northville in one semifi-nal, while Ypsilanti takes on host South Lyon, ranked No. 5 in Class A (coaches poll) in the other semifinal. Both matches start at 5:30 p.m. with the final immediately following.

Glenn, meanwhile, needed a victory from Jim Locke (189 younds) and a pin from Shawn Arbogast (heavyweight) to hold off Romulus, 33-27, to win the District No. 132 title at Garden City.

The Rockets (7-3 overall) also defeated Wayne Memorial in the Coach Dave Hill's squad advances to Wednesday's four-team regional at Garden City. The Rockets, second in the Western Lekes, will square off against Northwest Suburban League champ Dearborn in one semifinal, while No. 1-ranked Temperance-Bodiord Incos Redford Catholic Central (10-7-1) in the other semifinal. (Both matches start at 6 p.m. with the final immediately following.)

CC best Wyandotte (43-25)

and Southgate Anderson (42-22) to win District No. 130 at Woodhaven.
Steve Borke (130), Phill Bache (135), Liam O'Donohue (152), Jason Krueger (171) and Todd Lackey (heavyweight) all scored pins against Wyandotte. Krueger is now 39-1 overall.
Dave Gardner (125) and Tom McDonald (145) added wins by decision.

McDonald (145) added wins by decision.

Winners by pin against Southgate for the Shamrocks included Borke, Bache, McDonald and Krueger. Teammates Bill Lamb (103), Mike Madden and Krueger. Banden Berther Blowers second and third with 147 and 143, respectively.

League chempions for CC included Lackey, Lamb, Borke, Bache, Madden and Krueger.

Blazers repeat title feat in Catholic League final

By Steve Kowalski

Dearborn Divine Child's 6-foot-3 senior Jessica Toth is a fine basketball player and an out-standing volleyball player.

standing volleyball player.
Livonia Ladywood found out the latter Thursday night when it challenged DC for the Catholic League A-B for the Catholic
League A-B Division championship before a sellout crowd at Madonna University.
Toth played an incredible first game before Ladywood adjusted and railled to beat the Falcons in three games (9-15, 15-5, 15-10) for its accond straight A-B Division championship. championship.

Total stammed seven straight kills and the Felicons score the first 10 points en route to the easy win in Game 1.

Ladywood coach Tom Teeters countered by sending his tallest player, 6-3 junior Anne Poglits didn't dominate but helped neutralize Toth the rest of the way.

Poglits had three blocks, four digs and was an obstacle for Toth to think about when she tried to kill the hall. Hitters Liz Gunn and Mary Jo Kelly also benefited in Games 2 and 3, finishing with nine and 11 kills, respectively.

Ladywood will play for the Operation Friendship championship against the Detroit Public School Lesgue champion 530 p.m. today at Harper Woods Bishop Gallagher.

"Anne did a creat tob." Teeters at Harper Woods Bisnop Gar-lagher.

"Anne did n great job," Teeters said. "Her three blocks were very effective, but on top of that she changed their hitting overall.

Toth became human the next two games instead of supernatural." DC was trying to become the first team from the AA Division insect eain from the AA Division in recent memory to not only advance to the final but win an A-B championship. The Chass B Falcons are 21-10-6.

"It was a Clinderella story — almost," DC coach Dave Sekerak sold. "This was a major accomplishment.

"Toth (16 kills) was the key in terms of hitting, and the rest of the team was key in playing de-fense and keeping the ball alive to get the ball to her. They're great kids and they play with a lot of heart."

Junior Kristy Walker and sen-ior Val Adzima gave the Blazers a boost serving with seven and three aces, respectively.

Ladywood took a 9-5 lead in Game 2 and scored the last six points, four coming on DC errors. The Blazers led only 10-9 in Game 3 before scoring five of the last six points.

Teeters said winning the Cath-olic League 'never gets old."
"The Catholic League is proba-bly the best in the state and the playoffs is a culmination of it." Teeters said. "The Catholic League puts on such a good show and Madonna did a great job hosting it.
"The competitiveness of the league makes it more worthwhile as a cosch to win it. Coach Sek-erak has done a great job for DC."

"I skied really well this morning (in the GS), but this afternoon I didn't ski as well as I thought I could have (in the silaton)." Niki Gable said. "As a team, everyone skied really well today, I'm really excited to be going back to state." Last year, as a freshman, Gable qualified for the state meet as an individual. She placed 14th in the GS but was disqualified in the silaton.

It wean't just Gable's performance that put the Marlins in position to qualify for the state meet. Mercy also received strong showings from Maggie Janes, Allison Vigi, Jennifer Busser and Mardi Milla.

Janes placed 15th in the GS (59.18) and 15th in the slalom (49.86), Vigi was 16th (59.24) and 22nd (52.79), respectively. Busser placed 11th in the slalom (47.92) and Milia 20th in the GS (69.05).
"We had strong finishes from all the girls today," Tom Gable said. "I'm proud of the way they came back after missing out on league."

Cook will represent the Mus-tangs at the state meet as an indi-vidual qualifier in both events. She placed second in the GS (42.82) and fourth in the slalom (66.33).

Brighton also won the boys division with 84 points. Walled Lake Central was second with 113 points followed by Fenton (193), Okemos (222), Redford Catholic Central (229), Milford (249) and Birmingham Brother Rice (259).
