Fans for arts

Recently Tom and Bov Moore hosted a dinner party for the Fan Club, which John Bloom started in 1984. The title is newly changed to the Fanclub Founda-tion for the Arts, Bloom said. At the Moore dinner for the board of trustees, Wilhelm Kast was named honorary chaltwoman. Attending were Sigrun Kast, Roger and Judie Sherman, Dr. Myron and Joyce LaBan, Bud and Jacque Mularoni, Mort and Mary Lou Zieve, Fanclub dirocter John Bloom, Jeanne Towar, Walter and Andrea Briggs, Paul and Barbara Czamansko, and Erhard and Gretchen Dahm.

Plans were discussed for an ele-

and another charity involved in the arts.

We clatted with Bloom on how it all began in 1984. "The long-standing Party in the Park for the Detroit Artists Market wanted a fresh perspective," he explained. "We did the Party in the Park for two years, and then moved on benefits for Music Hall, Channel 56, Michigan Opera Theatre and the Attle Theatre." A new "alighty Bohemian" theme emerged each year.

"Today we have a committee
