Farminaton Observer

SPORTS

INSIDE: Western Lakes swimming, Page 2C Catholic League basketball, Page 40

DAN O'MEARA, EDITOR 953-2141

FARMINGTON FARMINGTON HILLS SPORTS SCENE

U-M/Dearborn hockey

hocky team, featuring several area players, will compete March 2-7 in the American College Hockey Association National Champion-ships at North Dakota State University in Fargo, N.D.

ships at North Dakota State University in Fargo, N.D. Retect fifth in the country, the U-M-Dearborn Wolves are one of eight teams to qualify for the tournament. The team includes sophomore defenseman Greg Sapick and freshman goalle Brian Gillary of Farmington Hills and freshman defenseman Jeff Farida of West Bloomfield. Livonit expresentatives are Todd Keller, senior defenserian; Chris Hojinicki, sophomore center; and Donnis Elenich, sophomore defenseman. Jesse Hubenschmidt, freshman centor, brother Jim, junior forward, both of Redford Catholic Cen-tral U-M, Jo coached by David Restock, finished the Central States Collegists Hockey Lesgue.

Gable 5th in U.S. skiing

Katolie Schend Hard Construction Race Academy, finished filth in the wom-ar's giant slalom at the Central Division of the U.S. Ski Association Championships at Sugar Loaf Resort Feb. 20-21. Gable, a sophomore at Farmington Hills Mercy High School, won league and regional ski champi-onships recordity. She will lead the Marilns into the state finals today in Marquette.

Bandits runners-up

Balling to the second of the second in the diverse of the second with a the lacks a Warriers. The Bandits finished with a 6-3 record. "Everyone played well this session," each Tom Faro said. "We were able to overcome some inter-seting and accillang challenges during the sesson. The guys have progressed rather niesly. I'm confident the will be prepared for our upcoming out-door season."

Madonna women lose

Waadonna women lose twas a long way to go for a heartbreak. Madona University's women's basketball team fought its way east through a winter storm for a game in Erle, Pa, againat Division II. Gannon Collego last Tuesday. And for most of the game, it looked like it would be worth the trip. But Madonna surrendered a 17-point lead in the second half and lost, 74-73. "Wo were pretty much in command the entire game," said Madonna coach Bill Potter. "They took their first lead in the final two minutes." The score was tied, 73-73, with 10 seconds left and Madonna had the ball. But the ball came loces after a collision (no foul was called, much to Potter's chargin). Gannon's Shelley Bortz eventu-ally recovered the rolling ball and was fould with two seconds left. She mado one of two free-throw attempts.

we seconds left. She made one of two free-throw attempts. Free throws told part of the tale. Gannon made 16 free throws, 13 in the second half. Madonna 16 froe throws, 13 in the second half. Madonna made 11. Field goal percentage told the rest of it. Madon-in was an fire in the first half. bitting 59 percent of its shots. Gennon, meanwhile, bit an 1cy 22 per-cent. Those percentages were very nearly reversed in the second half. Jill Burt secred 21 points to pace Madonna (13-17). Stephanie Niebauer added 16 and Kim Klb-bey chipped in with 10. Londe Byrt secred 21 for Gannon 10-150. "Gannon is a Division II team and even though we had an opportunity to wint he game, we still feel pretty good about our effort," Potter said.

Olympic skater visits

City in the start of the start

Ico Capades at the Falace of Auburn Fills later this month. A dozen Wolverines speedskators will take part along with Special Olympiana. Soveral members of the Midland Speedskating Club also will at-tend, including 1992 tatte senior-class champions John Camili and Peth Bedford.

S'craft volleyball events ryouts for the SOVA AAU volleyball teams girls under 12, 14, 16 and 18 — will be Sundays, March 14 and 21, at Schoolcraft ge. There will be ellte, varsity and JV levels. 1 College.

Concept and group. Tryouts and scholarship auditions for the 1993 Schoolcraft women's volleyball team will be 9 a.m. Sunday, March 21. For information call Tom Testers at 462-4400, Ext. 5252.

Bob Kaump, who filed suit against Farmington Public Schools after he was fired from his coaching position, received a settlement from the district, but the two sides have differing views of the legal outcome.

@$

NIT AS

lawyers appointed by a judge — de-cided Kaump should be given an award of $20,000, and that figure was accepted by both parties. After that it's open to individual interpretation as to what the saward nearnes and what the mediators really decided if anything. "To an extent, you can draw any conclusion you want, but I would conclusion you want, but I would cause tink's not the purpose of me-diation," said attorney Bill Albert-son, who represents the school dis-trict.

Mediators resolve coach's lawsuit

Kaump, avid there is some ambiguity inherent in the mediation process that allows both sides to claim victory. "I suppose there is because you

"I suppose there is because you give both parties the opportunity to walk away saying I was right to some extent," he said. Kaume, who continues to teach at Power Middle School but is no longer involved in coaching, said he sought only to have his case beard by a disin-terested third party and believes the monitory award represents a legal judgment based on the mettis of the case as well. Kaume said he has a copy of the panel's written decision, which he be-lieves support is that claim. The docu-ment supposedly states the modiators ruled unanimously in his favor and he should be compensated by the dis-trict.

trict

According to the school district and Albertoon, there was no legal determi-nation. The mediation panel is charged with finding a figure both sides will accept and will put the midite's to rest. "The probably something in the middle," Lowher said. "It gives both sides the opportunity to walk from it feeling their side was justified. "Technically, when both accept, it becomes a judgment. It's a stop short of a judge saying This iddle is right and this side is wrong." "You probably could say we won a judgment because you didn't roject it. We feel it was fair and vindicated Bob's position." After the mediators suggmat a figure to settle the issue, both sides can el-ther accept or reject it. If one rejects

Cahill's 18 paces Harrison

See KAUMP, 3C

BY DAN O'MEARA

Grary Warren For most basketball players, the home-court advantago is something to be cherished, but that hasn't been the case for Ryan Cahill this winter. The Farmington Hills Harrison sonior has played some of his best ball in opposing gyms, so there was some understandable anticity before a first-round playoff game Friday at Harrison.

Since under Landre darker der finst-round playoff game Friday at Harrison. But there was no need to worry. Cahill roversed the course of histo-ry by scoring a game-high 18 points and leading the Hawis to victory over Plymouth Canton in the Western Lakes Activities Association, 49-44. "This was probably my best game at home," Cahill said. "It seems I shoot a little better in away gyms, but tonjat the ball seemed to be going in pretty good. "It was feeling it in the third quar-ter, and I was getting some good picks from my toarmates. Sometimes it's hard to get open when the other team knows you're a shooter, but I was get-ting open and the shot was falling for more.

The Hawks (9-9) will play host to Plymouth Salem in the second round Tureday, and Cahil had his career high (24) against the Rocks in Janu-ury when Harrison won 95-94. "I don't know if that's good or not for mo, "Cahill said, "It's good I'm anally starting to feel it in our gym, vantage. Neither team shot well from the floor, as the Rocks made 38 per-

See HAWKS. SC

See PLAYOFFS, 3C

Playoff time: Jeff Cislo gets ready to release a shot as Canton's Tim Moritz closes in Friday in the first round of the WLAA tournament.

Salem's late surge sinks North cagers

BY NEAL ZIPSER STATE WATER

U.S

vance to a semifinal matchup Tues-day at Farmington Hills Harrison. The Hawks beat Salem 95-94 in a thriling, come-from-behind game earlier this season. North (8-10) will play at Canton Tuesday.

With 4:52 renaming in Fridays Plymouth Salem-North Farmington basicaball game, the visiting Radices held a 40-35 lead and looked like they might pull off one of the biggest up star of the season. Not The Rocks then mede quick work of North by scoring 22 of the game's final 25 points en route to a 61-45 vic-tory in a first-round Western Lakes Activities Association playoff game. "The score is definitely not indica-tive of how the game went," Saler With the win, the Rocks (16-2) ad-With the win, the Rocks (16-2) ad-

The Rocks converted 12 of 13 free throws and Mike Sions added two triples as Salem outcored North 22-3 in the final minutes. The key to the game was the chari-ty stiple, where Salem made 19 of 26 (73 percent), North converted just four of 19 (21 percent). "We secuted on offense, drew the fouls and then couldn't hit our frac-throws." North coart from Negoshian said. "They made their shots and we didn't Theirs a 15-point awing." North connected on only one of eight tries in the third quarter. In-stend of pulling away from Salem, it was the Rocks who outscored the Raiders 16-6 in the quartor. Pennals, a junior guard, led North with 13 points. Ellis and Todd An-derson added nine and eight, respec-tion. tively. Junior forward James Head led Sa-Junior forward sames index not and lem with 20 points and nine re-bounds. Mike Sione tallied 18 points — 14 in the second half — while Brandon Sione ripped down 14 boards. Salem held a 37-29 rebounding ad-

119 C

BY DAN O'MEARA

STAF Warra The main competition was among the Plymouth Salem glis themselves Thursday in the Western Lakes Activities Association gymnastics finals. The 7 skes had the top five all-arounders and walked off with their fourth consecutive league title at Westland John Ginn High School. The soutcome was actually a foregone conclusion since Salem, the top-ranked team in the state, is obviously leaded with talent. The Rocks scored 146.76 and finished 8.6 points a head of Plymouth Canton and 16 in front of North Farmington.

ahead of Flymouth Canton and to in Account of Flymouth Farmington. Walled Lake, led by Stacey Mackowiak and Suele Murberk, had its best finish in years and was fourth. Northville, Glenn and Farmington fol-lowed in that order. Salem's goal is to dethrone two-time state cham-pion Muskegon Mona Shores in two weeks, and its

and the second s

WLAA team effort was a step in that direction. "What we need to win the state is a repeat per-formance of tonight," Salem coach Johanna Ander-sco asid. "We had a great evening. We were on physically as well as mentally. "We didn't have any fails on beam, no breaks on bars and we had air fabulous floor routines. Our vault scores were low, but we still performed will." The Rocks were led by senior Kim Miller, who returned to high school competition after a one-year absence and receptured the ail-around title she won as a sophomore and freehman with a 37.20 total. total total. "I didn't really have a goal (coming back this year); I just wanted to do well and have fun," Miller said. "This was one of my best mosts. My beam was more solid, and my floor was more flowing." The all-around scoring reflected Salern's domi-nance as senior Courtney Gonyce (37.05) finished accord, eephomore Molissa Hopson (36.1) third and juniors Alysis Sofios (36.05) and Sara Makins (35.8) fourth and fifth. Gonyas is the conference champion on vault (9.2) and floor exercise (3.5), Milles achieved the highest all-around total of her carbor. Gonyas, who also had her best bars score (9.2) and contributed to a Salom sweep of the top five places in that event, would have been the all-around champion if Miller had not returned, but the two dark consider themseives in competition with each other. "We want to win the state this year, so we just choer each other on," Gonyas asid. "In the begin-ning, I probably would have though that, but as we went along I realized, with her on the team, we had a chance to win the state.

BY DAN O'MEARA by LOAN OF THEARA Former coach Bob Kaump and Farmington Public Schools have re-solved their dispute, and but the winner (if there is one) depends on point of view. Kaump field auit against the dis-trict in 1991 after being dismissed as boys varsity backtobal coach at Farmington High School. Both sides agreed to take the case before a mediation panel to resolve the matter and to alleviate overcrowd-ing of court docketa. The mediators — three neutral

the new Hitt

57)