Oldies band swings at OCC

Connoisseurs of 1920s popular music on a limited budget should truck down to Oakland Community College Friday, March 12, for a free concert performance of the Hotel Savarino Society Orchestra. Featuring songs like Baby Face, My Blue Heaven and The Christian, the 13-piece band has been practicing for weeks in the basement of tuba player George Cartsonis, who is OCC's public relations director by day.

The concert begins at 7 p.m. at the college's Royal Oak campus, located at 739 S. Washington. For more information, call 644-5658 or 644-4903.
