LIFE SAVERS

Livonia Franklin (8-12): First-year coach Dan Kennedy has had a rollercoaster season. The Patri-ots, however, can win their district opener tonight against host Gar-den City before running into Wor-rino A League oc-preservers.

Livonia Churchill (7-13): The Chargers put together a nice little winning streak at the end of the season. It started with an upset victory over Northville. Can lightning strike twice? Possible, but not prohable.

SNICKERS

Redford Thurston (9-10): The Eagles finished in the middle of the pack in the Tri-River League. But they'll find themselves in another they'll lind themselves in another league by Wednesday night when Catholic League Central Division champion University of Detroit-jesuit stands front and center. Just remember, Thurston did hold Chris Webber down for three quarters before being ousted in the districts two years at Country Day. Bring back Danny Pertfula.

Livonia Clarenceville (12-8): Rob White should get some votes for Observerland Coach of the Year atter leading the Trojans to a re-spectable season. But what did White do to deserve an opening-round matchup against Bishop Borgess?

BUTTERFINGERS

Farmington (7-13): The Falcons have let a tow games slip away this season. Getting through the West Bloomfilled district is a sticky proposition despite the efforts of junior point-guard Scott Menser, a fine three-point shooter.

CHUCKLES

Livonia Stevenson (5-15): Coach Jim McIntyre hasn't lost his sense of humor despite a terrible season. The Spartans hit a sneg at mid-season when junior forward chris Chichila went down with a thumb injury. He's back, but the Spartans haven't been able to give the thumbs-up sign in awhile.

Redford Union (2-16-1): They're nicknamed the Panthers, but there's been little scratch and claw in their game this season. They do have a tie to their credit, however. Check the score back on Jan. 30 (versus the alumni), Detrolt Redford (1-11) is RU's first-round foe at Catholic Central. I predict an RU victory.

JET-PUFFED MARSHMALLOW

Garden City (3-17): Wait a minute. The Cougars may not be devoured so fast. They scored 81 points in a victory last week over 1-18 Mekindale. Maybe first-year coach Greg Williamson could bank some of those points for, tonight's encounter with Franklin.

JUNIOR MINTS

Redford St. Agatha (4-13): All four Aggle victories came in the C-section of the Catholic League. Agatha, however, may not need a Caesaren to beat Plymouth Christian Academy on Wednesday. The Aggles give birth outside the Cetholic League for a change. Plymouth Christian (8-14): The Eagles could be put to nest early. but making the district final at Pontiac-Oakland Catholic is not out of the question. The Eagles however, tiac-Qakland Catholic is not out of the question. The Eagles, however, will be an endangered species when Saturday's championship fi-nal commences against state-ranked Aubum Hills Oakland Chris-

CANDY CORN

Lutheran High Westland (2-18): Coach Scott Wiemer always puts hings in proper perspective. "I can't complain about our draw," in said. "If could have been Bish-op Borgess." The Warriors play the winner of host Orchard Lake St. Mary (4-12) and Southfield Chris-tian (6-13). It's a new season, right?
