

SUBURBAN BUSINESS LEADERS

To submit materials to this column, please send a brief biographical summary along with a black-and-white photo, if possible, to: Business Editor, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150.

The UNISYS board of directors has elected Deborah C. Hopkins vice president and corporate controller. She replaces Bill Rowan, who was recently appointed chief information officer for UNISYS Hopkins, whose most recent position was vice president, corporate business analysis brings to this position a wide range of experience and successes in the financial arena. Hopkins is the daughter of Gretchen and Frank Hitch of Birmingham.

Sanford Norman and Melinda Murphy of Century 21 Town and Country in Birmingham were recently recognized as being among the top producing sales associates in the Century 21 Metro Brokers Council.

Also recognized for their sales achievements are: Earl Roberts, Barbara Young, Cindy Jacobson and Roseann Nestloe of Century 21 Town and Country in Troy; Michael Anspach and Lynn Randall of Century 21 Town and Country in Birmingham; Carol French, Pat Smart and Diane Sandler of Century 21 Town and Country in Rochester; Craig Smith of Century 21 Palazzolo and Travis in Troy; Roxanne Tarantini of Century 21 Town and Country in Rochester; Mary Messingschlag, Jolie Levine and Mark Warren of Century 21 Today in Farmington.

AIA Michigan, a society of the American Institute of Architects has announced its board of directors for 1993. They are:

■ Steve Vogel, president of Schervish, Vogel, Merz P.C. in Detroit, has been named president;

■ Eugene Hopkins, a principal staff founding partner of Architects Four Inc. in Ann Arbor, has been named vice president/president designate;

■ Lincoln Poley, of Lincoln Poley Architect in Ann Arbor, has been named secretary;

■ Graham Dickens, an associate of Smith, Hinchman & Grylls Associates Inc. in Detroit has been named treasurer.

In addition, directors for the AIA Michigan's Detroit chapter are: West Bloomfield resident Daniel Redstone of Louis G. Redstone Associates Inc. in Southfield; Benedetto Tiseo of Tiseo & Associates in Farmington Hills; and Birmingham resident Robert Ziegelman of Luckenbach/Ziegelman in Birmingham.

Attorneys Sam G. Morgan, David J. Shea, Carl B. Downing, Kenneth Watkins and Gary E. Abeke have become associated with Sommers, Schwartz, Silver & Schwartz in Southfield.

Morgan practices extensively in the areas of employment and commercial litigation. Shea specializes in personal injury, product liability and mass tort litigation. Downing practices in the area of appellate law. Watkins specializes in personal injury and medical malpractice. Abeke specializes in employee rights and employee litigation.

Michelle D. Kujala has been promoted agency vice president at the insurance agency J.J. O'Connell & Associates Inc. in Birmingham. Her new position gives her the responsibility of office manager in administration, personnel commercial and personal lines insurance.

G. Anthony Jankowski of Farmington Hills has joined the staff of Bloomfield Hills-based First Security Savings Bank as a senior loan officer. He is responsible for residential loan origination. Jankowski was previously a loan officer with Source One and a realtor with Thompson-Brown.

Paul Zimmerman of Southfield has been promoted to vice president/creative director at IMP, a wholly-owned subsidiary of D'Arcy Masius Benton & Bowles/Bloomfield Hills (DMBB/BH).

In this position, Zimmerman is responsible for all of IMP's events marketing, heading up creative for the lauz account as well as investigating additional client opportunities.

Charlene Hansen of Southfield has been promoted to Zone H Manager, covering the northeast region of the Michigan Marketing Area of The Kroger Co. in Livonia.

In this position, Hansen will oversee the operation of 10 stores in the Port Huron, Uica and Mt. Clemens areas.

Her responsibilities include market analysis, training and development of new employees and supervising store management in her region.

Don DeFosset has been appointed vice president and group executive of Turbocharging & Truck Brake Systems at Allied Signal in Troy.

DeFosset came to Allied Signal Automotive from Mack Trucks Inc. where he served as executive vice president of operations, in charge of manufacturing, purchasing and after market.

Source One Mortgage Services Corp. in Farmington Hills has named Mark Jansson as senior vice president of financial operations. He is responsible for the financial operations of the company.

Carol A. McCririe, C.P.A., has opened an independent public accounting practice in Bingham Farms. During more than 10 years of experience with public accounting firms, McCririe has worked for clients in a wide area of businesses, including contracting, retail, manufacturing, service industries and the non-profit sector.

Advest Realty Inc. of Southfield is proud to announce that Martin Gorosh has joined the firm as associate broker.

Martin specializes in residential properties throughout southeastern Michigan.

Richard Barina of Westland has been chosen as Quality Achiever of the month at Farmington Hills-based Jervis B. Webb Co.

Donald L. Castle of West Bloomfield was one of five persons elected to the Board of Trustees of the Foundation at its first meeting in 1943.

At the Foundation's recent Board meeting, Castle was honored in celebration of his fiftieth year of association with the Foundation. Castle is the first, and only, Trustee to have achieved this milestone.

Castle served in various offices for the Foundation, but principally as its Executive Director from 1956 to 1969. He was elected a Member of the Foundation in 1973 and retired in 1980.

The Hudson-Webber Foundation was established by the Webber family and the J. L. Hudson Co. The Foundation currently has assets of $92 million and concentrates its efforts and resources in support of the development of The Detroit Medical Center, the economic development of southeastern Michigan; the physical revitalization of downtown Detroit; the enhancement of Detroit's major art and cultural resources; and the reduction of crime in Detroit.

William McCullen has been named Century 21 regional director for the southeastern Michigan (metro Detroit) and northwestern Ohio (metro Toledo) area, as announced today by Doug Stranahan, president of the Great Lakes division of Century 21 Real Estate Corp.

Headquartered in Novi, Mich., the regional office will provide many "hands-on" field support services for franchisees within the region, such as start-up, training and customer service programs.

McCullen's appointment is part of a major restructuring of Century 21 Real Estate Corp.'s domestic operations.

Marla Mizsek has been promoted to Office Manager at the full-service advertising, public relations and marketing agency, R. E. Laun Inc. Her responsibilities include account payable and receivable, bookkeeping and administrative duties.

Susan Kay Gage of Livonia has joined the Troy-based public relations firm Stone, August, Baker & Communications Co. as a media assistant. Previously Gage interned at Stone, August, Baker in the media department. A 1992 graduate of Grand Valley State University, she has a Bachelor of Science in Communication.

Tina Pawloski has joined the Troy Marriott as a sales manager. Pawloski will be primarily responsible for working with Michigan-based associations and corporations. Most recently, she worked in sales at the Sterling Inn in Sterling Heights and the Embassy Suites in Livonia before joining the Troy Marriott.

Bob Busch and Dave Rawden have been promoted to Senior Associates at Southfield-based Jay and Crisla management firm. Busch specializes in investigative accounting and litigation support, particularly in the evaluation of business plans and operations, and insolvency, preference and fraudulent conveyance analysis. Rawden also specializes in investigative accounting and litigation support. His concentration is in the areas of analyzing or developing financial projections, bankruptcy taxation, and in business planning for troubled companies.

Florine Mark, president and CEO of the WW Group Inc., the largest franchise of Weight Watchers International, announced the appointment of Samuel Muscarella as chief operating officer.

Muscarella comes to Weight Watchers with more than 14 years experience in executive management. He spent ten years with Dayton-Hudson, where his last assignment was as general manager in several regional markets and metropolitan Detroit.

Also at Weight Watchers, Sheryl Fellows has been appointed director of creative services and Vincenza Mueller has been appointed director of organizational and staff development.

Phyllis Soverinsky Russo has been awarded the degree of Doctor of Chiropractic by Logan College of Chiropractic in Chesterfield, Mo.

Russo grew up in Southfield and graduated from Southfield Sr. High School.

Russo, who graduated from Logan College Cum Laude, was among 60 graduating students honored at the College's 109th commencement.

Caroline McGuire of Rochester Hills has recently joined the real estate office of RE/MAX Professional Inc. in Rochester Hills, as an associate-broker.

Along with the communities McGuire has served, her career has also grown and prospered. During the 23 years she has served the residential and relocation real estate needs of north Oakland and northwest Macomb Counties, with concentration in Rochester-Rochester Hills, McGuire has sold over $80 million worth of homes.

Allison Hull & Malnati Inc. of Farmington Hills, a public relations and marketing communications agency, has added a new, full-service advertising division to its global operation, greatly expanding the agency's already extensive marketing communications services.

As part of this move, the agency has hired Don Saint-Pierre as vice president of marketing communications. Saint-Pierre, formerly a principal of Profit Inc., a leading New England advertising firm, will head AH&M's new advertising division.

Keith D. Jones has joined Tol-Test Inc. as a remediation engineer. Located in the firm's Detroit office, Jones will be responsible for all phases of soil and groundwater treatment projects including specifications, development of work plans, permitting, implementation, construction and operation.

Bi-County Community Hospital's internal medicine chairman, has named the following Bloomfield Hills residents to chiefs of their respective specialties: Dr. Arthur Levine, endocrinology; Dr. David Lustig, neurology; Dr. Augustina Perrotta, oncology/hematology.

Also at Bi-County Community Hospital, West Bloomfield residents Dr. Joel Engel, cardiology; Dr. Harold Tobes, gastroenterology and Dr. William Peppo, pulmonary disease, have been appointed chiefs of their respective specialties.

Bi-County Community Hospital, an affiliate of Horizon Health Systems, is a 247-bed osteopathic teaching facility in Warren.

Other Horizon affiliates include Riverside Osteopathic Hospital in Trenton, Horizon Surgery Center in Livonia and Hamtramck Health Center.

Judith Kueway, president of Motor City Stamping, was elected to the Troy-based Huntington Banks of Michigan Board of Directors.

Kueway has been president of Motor City Stamping since 1969. Her company has received major quality awards for manufacturing systems and received recognition in Crain's Detroit Business. In addition, she is a board member of the General Motors CPC Supplier Team and is a member of the Detroit Economic Club.

Craig Kohler has been appointed financial specialist at The Prudential Real Estate Financial Services in Bloomfield Hills. He will oversee the origination and brokerage of custom-designed mortgages.

Kohler is based out of The Prudential Great Lakes Realty office in Rochester Hills and The Prudential Grosse Pointe Realty office in Grosse Pointe.

From 1984 to 1991, Kohler was a marketing representative for International Business Machines (IBM) of Southfield.

Marc K. Shaye of Franklin and George F. Curran, III, of Farmington Hills have joined and will establish a new environmental law department at Brooks & Kushman, a Southfield intellectual property law firm. Marc Shaye will head the department.

Marc Shaye came from the law firm of Cross Wrock P.C., where he headed the firm's environmental department. He has 20 years experience in environmental litigation, compliance, and occupational health and safety matters. Shaye has taken part in environmental conferences and seminars, and has taught environmental courses held throughout the United States and Europe.

George Curran was recently of counsel to the Provizer, Lichtenstein & Phillips, P.C. firm of Southfield, Michigan where he practiced environmental law. From 1987 to 1992, he served as manager of the environmental law at the firm of Denenberg, Tuffey, et al.

HDS Services, a Farmington Hills, Michigan-based food service management company, recently promoted Sue Lantzasch to the position of regional vice president of operations.

Since 1986, Lantzasch held the title of regional director. Based in Grand Rapids, she was responsible for HDS Services' Western Michigan accounts.

Now an regional vice president of operations, Lantzasch will relocate to HDS Services' home office in Farmington Hills and oversee selected accounts in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Florida.

Here's an easy way to house-hunt.

You'll find a lot of Open Houses listed right in our Classified Real Estate Section. There are also dozens of Open Houses listed on our electronic HomeLine directory. Be sure to check both. When using HomeLine, call 953-2020. You can listen to all sorts of recorded listings for houses that are open to view.

All you need is a touch tone telephone, a little time, and the following directions for using our voice telephone directory:

1. Call 953-2020
2. Press the number of the city you are interested in (see directory at right).
3. Choose your price range and listen to the listings for the city you've chosen.
4. Additional information:
 - To back up, press 1
 - To pause, press 2
 - To jump ahead, press 3
 - To exit at any time, press *

For Oakland County Listings, Press 1
Birmingham	4280
Bloomfield	4280
Farmington	4282
Farmington Hills	4282
Midland	4288
Novi	4286
Rochester	4285
Royal Oak	4287
Southfield	4283
South Lyon	4288
Troy	4284
Walled Lake	4286
West Bloomfield	4281

For Wayne county Listings, Press 2
Canton	4281
Garden City	4284
Livonia	4260
Northville	4263
Plymouth	4262
Redford	4265
Westland	4264

THE Observer & Eccentric
NEWSPAPERS
HOMELINE
953-2020