Musicale performs spring concert

The Farmington Musicale holds its annual concert to benefit their scholarship fund at 8 p.m. Friday, March 26, at North Congregational Church, 26276 Northwestern Highway, in Southfield. Master of ceremonies Harry M. Langford will play the organ both during the audience's arrival and departure. The program will begin with May D. Arvo, soprano, a Novi resident, offering favorites from Rodgers and Hart, and Vincent and Youmans. Sharon Sweet, mezzo-soprano, of Farmington Hills, performing operatic arias. Both performers will be accompanied by Marie Walck of Farmington Hills. Flute compositions will be performed by Kim Roemer Sax of Southfield who will be accompanied by her mother, Collette

Salon Roemer of West Bloomfield. Anita Ayala, winner of the Strey-McCallum piano award, will be a guest performer. The Farmington Musicale Chorus will then perform under the direction of Livonia resident Joyce Biegelow, accompanied by Commerce resident Carolee McDaniel. The finale will be the "Rhapsody in Blue" performed by duettists Yuki and Tomoko

Mack, West Bloomfield residents. The Mackas are beginning their professional career. The concert will be followed by a meet the artist afterglow. Ticket donation is $10 for adults and $6 for students through 12th grade. The church is located east of Lahar Road and north of Civic Center Drive. For ticket information call 851-5526.
