

COLLEGE SPORTS

STARS OF SOCCER

The first-ever Spring Soccer Showcase promises to highlight two top collegiate soccer programs, each with a fair share of local talent.

The host of this gala affair is Oakland University, perennially one of the top NCAA Division II teams in the nation. The Pioneers will host NCAA Division I power Wisconsin at 7 p.m. Saturday, April 17 at Rochester HS.

Wisconsin posted an 11-6-2 last fall. The Badgers were led in scoring by Livonia Stevenson graduate Travis Roy, a freshman forward who totaled eight goals and 21 points.

Other local stars for Wisconsin last season were Jeff Gold, a sophomore midfielder from Plymouth Salem who netted five goals; Scott Lamphere, a freshman defender from Livonia Churchill who started every game last season for the Badgers; and Mike Gentile, a freshman midfielder from Churchill whose brother, John, is a junior midfielder for OU.

The Pioneers, 18-3-1 last season and an NCAA II semifinalist, also feature freshman midfielder Chad Schomaker of Troy, junior midfielder Dominic Scicluna of Redford Catholic Central and junior keeper Mike Sheehy of Farmington. Other players to watch are sophomores Matt Walton (17 goals, 48 points), a second team NCAA II All-American, and Eli Tiomkin (20 goals, 51 points).

Tickets are $5 for adults and $3 for youths, and will be available at the gate. Proceeds go to the OU soccer program. For more information, call the OU athletic department at 370-3190.

TEAM LEADERS

The University of Michigan was within a period of extending its hockey season to the final game of the collegiate season — a goal senior defenseman Pat Neaton, from Redford, would have relished.

Alas, it was not to be. U-M fell to eventual NCAA champion Maine 4-3 in overtime in the tournament semifinals. Maine defeated Lake Superior State for the title.

Still, Neaton sparked for the Wolverines. He led the team's blueliners in scoring this season with 10 goals and 18 assists (28 points), pushing him to third on U-M's career scoring list for defensemen with 38 goals and 89 assists (127 points). The Wolverines' final record was 30-6-2.

Another team leader who didn't realize his goals was junior Ron Oris, a Plymouth Salem graduate who captained Michigan State's swim team. Oris was the Spartans' best swimmer last season in both the 100-yard butterfly (48.74) and 200 individual medley (1:52.08).

However, both times fell short of the qualifying standard for the NCAA meet. Oris was just off in his best event, the 100 fly; he needed a 48.34 to qualify. The standard in the 200 IM was 1:47.16.

AWARD WINNERS

Western Michigan University's women's basketball team showed vast improvement last season and one reason was the performance of senior point guard Michelle Fortier, from Plymouth Canton.

Fortier, who finished her career third among WMU's all-time asst leaders and fourth in steals, collected the best free throw shooting award (80.6 percent) at the team's annual banquet March 28. A four-year starter, Fortier helped the Broncos rebound from a dismal 2-25 season (1-16 in the Mid-American Conference) in 1991-92 to a 14-13, 10-9 record last season.

Another award-winner was Kevin Hankerson, a 6-foot-5 junior forward at Saginaw Valley State from Wayne Memorial. Hankerson started 21 of 25 games for the Cardinals, who finished 14-11 overall (7-9 in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference), averaging 6.6 points, 5.5 rebounds and 1.6 steals a game.

His efforts earned him the Spirit and Hustle Award. Hankerson was second on the team in steals and assists, third in rebounding and fourth in scoring.

DIAMOND DANDIES

Tracy Thompson is quickly making her mark at Ferris State University.

Only a sophomore, the Garden City graduate is a tri-captain on the Bulldogs' softball team. There's good reason: She led the team in runs batted in last season with 11 and was third in hitting with a .325 average. She also pitched 11 games, ranking second on the team with a 4.16 earned run average.

Thompson hasn't let up much thus far this season. Through nine games, she was batting .500, with two doubles, a triple, and team highs in RBI (six) and runs scored (10). She has not pitched yet, but FSU is off to a 7-2 start.

At Adrian College, Brett Wellington, a junior first baseman from Livonia (Redford Catholic Central), has been extremely productive. Wellington is hitting .302, with team bests in doubles (four) and RBI (11) through 13 games. Adrian was 5-8 overall, 0-2 in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association.
