Temple's art fair

The dynamic duo of Zager and Trager made their announcement — We'll be back again next year. Terrific news for the Temple Israel Sisterhood.

Phyllis Zager and Harriet Trager took on the job of over-all chairwomen of the 1993 Temple Israel Sisterhood Art Fair. "This chairmanship has given me a great new appreciation for the efforts of artists and comes with the bonus of meeting new people and forming wonderful new friendships," said Harriet Trager.

More than 1,000 guests attended the recent "Champane Preview" where glassblowers, rug makers, potters and jewelry artisans from all over the country convened. Twenty-two committee heads worked with their volunteers to make this event a blockbuster.

Favorite boutique item — the "little people" dolls that were brought in by an artist in Florida.

What's next for the Temple Israel Sisterhood under the direction of president Donna Phillips? A spring luncheon and fashion show Monday. For more information, call the temple at 661-6700 or Cindy Kandel at 661-2130.

Country Day update

ABC sports commentator Frank Gifford guest-hosted the "Regis and Kathie Lee" show

April 1 after spending an evening at the Ritz-Carlton, Dearborn, to receive the 1993 National Scholar/Athlete Award from Detroit Country Day School. The event was hosted by Kathie Lee and only wonderful things to say about the evening and the school.

Meanwhile, Joyce and Jan Green, this year's chairwoman and chairman couple for Auction '93 — Country Day, Country Night, are completing plans for the May 1 hoedown. Amazing auction items include autos, international trips, autograph memorabilia, private dinners and lots of toys for the home, 46-inch big-screen television, Pepsi vending machine, Oriental rug and baby grand piano. Dress for the night in black tie or country western duds. Call 646-7717 for a seat or saddle.

Media on Parade

The crowd howls when they see their favorite media personality (and their families) strolling the runway for the Women's Auxiliary to the Salvation Army's Media on Parade V.

Maggie Allasee is at it again, chairing the Wednesday, April 28, fashion show and auction at the Grand Manor at Fairlane in Dearborn. The runway review includes Rich Fisher, Don Shane, Anne Thompson, Joe Weaver, Florine Mark, Nancy McCauley, Chuck Galdica, Jill Dittmore and honorary chairwoman Katie Valentini (and families). Tickets are $30, patron $50 and benefactor $75 (includes a Breakfast at Tiffany's media press party). Call 861-4624.

Celebrity waiters

Jim Alexander, Suzy Farman, Son, Jack Faxon, Kirk Hendrix, Alex and Sigurn Kast, Sandy Knollenberg, Lorraine Schultz, Ron Thayer and Rita Wasserman will be celebrity waiters and waitresses at the second annual fund-raising luncheon Friday, April 23, at the Kingsley Inn in Bloomfield Hills.

Make them earn their tips the hard way — by dancing on tables or eating goldfish? Call 778-6800 for more information and a fun afternoon.

Hospice's eighth

Neiman Marcus at the Somerset Collection in Troy will roll out the red carpet and open its doors Saturday night, April 24, for the eighth annual Hospice of Southeastern Michigan Crystal Ball.

The oldest and largest hospice in Michigan will present Mary

Fisher with the Crystal Rose for her nationwide humanitarian efforts. Co-chairmen and co-chairwomen of the gala are Mort and Irene Crim and Richard and Shelley Golden.

Tickets are $200 (friend), $250 (patron) and $500 (benefactor). The evening will include cocktails, dinner and dancing to the sounds of Mel Ball and Colour.

Committee members include the Joseph Antonialis, the Tony Francos, the Rick Instomes, the Douglas Fesards and Timothy Leullietta. Call 669-9209 for information.

Being pampered

Six teenage girls from Orchard Children's Services received a day of pampering, complimentary at Tamara's Institute de Beauté in Farmington Hills.

"Since immigrating here penniless 19 years ago from Russia, this is just a small way to give back to this community that has been so good to me," said Tamara Friedman.

Quote for the Day: "The smallest good deed is better than the largest good intention." From the Sanctuary Newsletter.
