

The people you'll see on the pages of this section are part of what makes Birmingham unique. Walk around the streets of Birmingham and you'll meet the store owners themselves! In many cases the same owners who have been here for years. In all cases, it's the merchant who want to make your trip to Birmingham worthwhile and to invite you back again.

Get Acquainted with "Faces & Places..." Get acquainted with Birmingham.

Credits

Copy edited by Lisa Buczko, Cover Design by Letisia Duskin, Photos by Brenda Pesca and Jill Martell, Section coordinated by Gigi Badalamenti, Jill Martell, and Greg Young.

THE LEARNING EXPERIENCE OF A LIFETIME

Wehrli Performance Training

Improve your child's learning retention, self confidence and academic achievement with the sensitive, individual instruction at the Wehrli Performance Training Center. Proven techniques give students enhanced organizational skills and concentration power, enabling them to achieve increased academic aptitude for life.

Although the program is primarily for students K-12, the service is also open to adults and college students as well. Director Ann Sweet has run the Birmingham franchise center (there are 11 in the state) since July, 1988; she also operates the Rochester and Livonia Centers.

Wehrli Performance Training is conveniently located, reasonably priced and flexible enough to accommodate your busy lifestyle.

WEHRLI PERFORMANCE TRAINING CENTERS

988 S. Adams
Birmingham
258-8920

WOODWARD CAMERA MEETS ALL YOUR PHOTOGRAPHIC NEEDS

A full photographic service store, Woodward Camera offers a full line of photo and video equipment, and meets or beats all locally advertised pricing. Knowledgeable sales people are on deck to help. One hour processing and enlargements, prints to prints without negatives, contact sheets, positives to prints, and a quality portrait studio are among the services available. Woodward Camera discounts their extensive frame and album selection.

WOODWARD CAMERA

1580 S. Woodward • 642-1985