BEAUTIFULLY CRAFTED ORIENTAL RUGS... FROM TRADITIONAL TO AVANT GARDE

Hagopian has been the first name in quality, selection and service since 1939. This family-owned and operated shop offers antique and contemporary Oriental rugs, as well as cleaning and repair services to keep your investment to top form.

Harouton Hagopian, an Armentian immigrant with a dream, established his original store with superior customer service and expert craftsmanship as his foundation. Owners Edgar and Sarah Hagopian run the successful group of specialty shops along with the help of their children.

Today, Hagopian is the leader in decorative floor coverings, offering a diverse selection of exquisite new, antique and semi-antique rugs priced for all pocketbooks.

Visit the new showroom location now open at South Woodward and Hunter (with improved parking conditions); it promises to be the area's most exciting, designed to make shopping a pleasurable, personable experience, as always.
