SOAP TALK

Reader is curious about babies

By Candace Havens

Dear Candace: I enjoyed your article about Mark Pinter on Another World. I was wondering if his wife had her baby.

I would also like to know if AIV is going off the air. A friend of mine told me it was and I can't believe it. AIV is my favorite show. There is not a character on the show that I don't enjoy watching. It is such a fun show with so much humor. Please tell me what is happening.

On Days of Our Lives, sometimes John's baby looks different. Are they using more than one baby?

Did the woman who used to play Kayla on the show have her baby? Thanks, I hope you can answer all my questions. -Mary Lou in North Carolina.

Dear Reader: Pinter and his wife, Colleen Zenk-Pinter, became the parents of a daughter, Georgia Bennett Pinter, on March 5. Georgia is the actress' third child and her husband's fifth. Colleen's character, Barbara on As the World Turns, is scheduled to give birth in May.

There are rumors that if NBC decides to add a new soap to its afternoon lineup, Another World will be dropped. Triplets portray the role of Brady, so that might explain why he looks a little different each time.

Mary Beth Evans (ex-Kayla, Days) gave birth to a son, Matthew Joseph, on March 3.

Dear Candace: Could you please tell me why Patsy Pease doesn't play Kimberly on Days anymore? She is such a perfect actress for the role. -Mrs. Cliff Spitzer from Wisconsin.

Dear Reader: The exact circumstances as to why Pease left are still unclear. She says one thing, and the executives at the show say another. The gist of it is she was having physical and emotional problems and was unable to work as scheduled.

You may know of Pease's problems with being abused as a child that have recently come to light. The trauma has caused deep emotional scars that Pease says will take years to heal.

At one time NBC planned to make a movie about Pease and her life.
