CROSSWINDS MALL
Friday-Sunday, April 23-25 — The second annual West Bloomfield Inside Art showcases the works of 42 national professional artists, including animator Ted Feteko of West Bloomfield, Academy Award winner for his Crunch Bird cartoon. The event features a silent auction offering art donated by participating artists, a raffle with prizes contributed by mall retailers, and Detroit Zoo activities and exhibits for children. Proceeds from the auction and raffle will be donated to the Detroit Zoological Society. Hours are 4-8 p.m. Friday, 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday, Orchard Road and Lone Pine Road.

LAWRENCE STREET GALLERY
Friday, April 23 — The photographs of David Hoptman and sculptures of Sam Glosman, two local artists, are exhibited to May 14. Artists' reception 6-9 p.m. Friday. Hoptman's landscape, emphasizing areas of light and shadowplay, are from his international travels. Glosman's unusual ceramics feature figurative busts with an artist's eye toward exaggerated features. Also, gallery member Joan Brace exhibits her private collection of paintings, prints and sculpture by her artist friends to April 23. Hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday-Thursday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday, 29 W. Lawrence, Pontiac, 354-6718.

DETROIT ARTISTS MARKET
Friday, April 23 — The 16th annual Michigan Potters Association Juried Show will continue through May 21. Public reception 5-9 p.m. Friday. Lectures by Tony Hepburn, ceramics professor at the Cranbrook Academy of Art, and Paul Kotula, Center for Creative Studies instructor and former Pewable Pottery and Switzer Gallery juror. Start of the Hepburn juried more than 300 entries before choosing the work of 37 artists for the exhibit. Hours are 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday-Thursday and Saturday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday, 300 River Place, Suite 1650, Detroit, 393-1770.

CENTER GALLERIES
Friday, April 23 — "Facets: Selected Glass Artists," continuing through June 4, celebrates 25 years of glassmaking at the Center for Creative Studies. Opening reception 5-7 p.m. Friday. Guest curator Herb Babcock, who is chairman of the CCS crafts department and who has been coordinator of the CCS glass program since 1974, chose nine CCS-College of Art and Design alumni for the exhibit. They are Karen Sepanski, Barbara Wallace and Albert Young of Detroit, Frederick Birchhill of Pinckney, Leslie Ott of Grass Point Farms, Richard Ritter and Sally Rogers of North Carolina, Liz Marx of California and Bernia D'Onofrio of Massachusetts. Hours are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday-Saturday (closed Saturday, May 29), in Suite 107 of the Park Shelton Building, 15 E. Kirby, Detroit, 874-1955.

SCARAS CLUB
Friday, April 23 — "The Glass Element II," featuring all Michigan artists, tracks the advance of glass as a material and examines the current utilitarian work, continuing through May 15. Opening reception, featuring performances by classical guitarist Peter Safran, 6-9 p.m. Friday. Hours are noon to 6 p.m. Wednesday-Sunday, 217 North Main, at the northeast corner of John R, adjacent to the Detroit Institute of Arts, 831-1250.

TRIUMPH GALLERY
Saturday, April 24 — Northville artist Bill Shelton will present his new line of steel bird sculptures for the yard, and Milford artist Dee Segula will exhibit her artistically appointed wood birdhouses. Meet the artists 1-5 p.m. Saturday. Also, works by Birmingham glass blower Stan Magdala will be exhibited through April. All colors of the rainbow are shown in his perfume bottles, vases, three-footed bowls and platters. Some are done in tortoise shell and foam wares. Hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Sunday, noon to 4 p.m. Sunday and by appointment, 109 N. Center, Northville, 349-4131.

WESTACRES ARTIST MARKET
Saturday, April 24 — The 25th annual Westacres Artist Market features works in a variety of media by 75 artists. Hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Westacres clubhouse, on the bluffs of Middle Straits Lake off Commerce Road, east of Union Lake Road and west of Orchard Lake Road in West Bloomfield. Admission is free.

WATERFORD FRIENDS OF THE ARTS GALLERY
Monday, April 26 — "Art in Nature," an all-media exhibit by members of Waterford Friends of the Arts, will continue through May 19. Opening reception 7:30-9 p.m. Monday. Hours are 7-9 p.m. Monday-Thursday in the Waterford Community Center, 1415 Crescent Lake Road at M-59. For more information, call gallery director Robert Seeburger at 666-4663.

ARTISTS TO VISIT
Tuesday, April 27 — Painter Holly Branster and sculptor Richard Tucker will visit the Birmingham galleries exhibiting their art to answer questions about and comment on their most recent work. They will be at the Lemberg Gallery, 638 N. Woodward, 7:30 p.m. (phone 642-6623). Tucker will be at the Xochipilli Gallery, 568 N. Woodward, 8:15 p.m. (phone 646-1805). Art and Flowers

'Peonies': This work by Rita Mach Skozcen of Rochester Hills won the 1993 Art and Flowers poster competition. The artist will sign the festival poster 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday-Saturday, April 22-24, at the Detroit Institute of Arts. "Art and Flowers: A Festival of Spring" is the combined effort of the Volunteer Committee and the Women's Committee of the DIA in cooperation with the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan. For more information, call the DIA Founders Society Development Department at 833-7969 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Series plans April in Paris

Southfield's World Adventure and Travel Series extends an invitation to "April in Paris," an unusual way to travel and see a different view of France, 7:30 p.m. Friday, April 23, in the Council Chambers at the Southfield Civic Center, 26000 Evergreen. Admission is $4. Tickets will be available at the door or by calling 354-4717.

In the presentation, Ken Lawrence will take the audience on a barge cruise with his film, "France Afloat." It opens by showing romantic Paris in a soft spring rain. The Eiffel Tower, the Seine, the opera and an antique Citroen auto rally will start the adventure. The barge cruise will begin at Canal du Chame Am Rhien, Dijon, Strasbourg Cathedral, Beauvo and Nuit St. George will be featured.

In the presentation, Ken Lawrence

Gardener to answer questions

To help area residents in enjoying, mastering and beautifying their flora, the Bloomfield Township Public Library is featuring a program called "Ask the Gardener" 1-3 p.m. Saturday, April 24. Master gardener Robin Hamill, owner of RAH Horticulture Service, will answer questions on flowers, shrubs, trees, grass, bugs and more.

For more information, call the library's adult services department at 642-5800. The library is at 1099 Lone Pine Road at Telegraph.

Japanese flower art presented

The Detroit Garden Center will present a workshop on oshibana, the Japanese art of pressed flowers under rice paper, 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, April 24.

Learn this ancient art by creating stationery and a bookmark. This technique allows one to create a mood of nature using each plant's special characteristics. Hilde Beuty will be the instructor. The fee is $10. Call 259-6363 for reservations. The center is at 1460 E. Jefferson, one-half mile east of the Renaissance Center. Parking is available.

Art auction slated Sunday

The Ann Arbor Artists Co-op will have its second annual auction fund-raiser 1-4 p.m. Sunday, April 25, at the Performance Network Theater, 405 W. Washington.

A preview of works to be auctioned continues to April 23 in the Ann Arbor Artists Co-op Gallery at 617 E. Huron (Harris Hall lower level). Due to limited seating, bidders are encouraged to RSVP before April 24. For more information, call Rene LeMar at the co-op administrative office at 668-6769.

The gallery committee will select 30 to 40 framed original paintings, prints, drawings, photographs and sculptures by the most popular exhibiting members. These works will be offered by auction at a fraction of their true resale value.
