Suspect captured: Farmington Hills police detectives Pat Monti (left) and Brian De-Grande (center) arrest a suspect in a robbery Friday.

Cops nab suspect in Kroger holdup

A helicopter and police tracking dogs were used to catch one suspect of a robbery of a Kroger store Friday at 11 Mile and Middlebelt in Farmington Hills.

Farmington Hills police said two men robbed the store at about 8:30 a.m., then fled in a car they abandoned near 11 Mile and Inkster. They took the car's plate and fled on foot into woods behind WKBD channel 50 in Southfield.

Tracking dogs and a Detroit Police Department helicopter were brought to the scene and at about 10 a.m. one man was flushed out of the woods, said Farmington Hills Police detective Sgt. Chuck Nebus.

That man was being held in the Farmington Hills city jail Friday. Charges are pending. The other man is still at large, police said.
