■ GRANDROCK 9, CVILLE 0: On Thursday, Bloomfield Hills Grandrock pitcher Mike Murray struck out seven and allowed just five hits in seven innings to beat Livonia Clarenceville (8-10, 7-5) for the second time this season in a Metro Conference game.

Steve Parks, the losing pitcher, gave up seven runs on eight hits before giving to Robbie Ashby on a sacrifice fly.

Mark Juncal had two hits in a losing cause.

■ LUBERAN High Westland gained a 16-13 victory over the host Trojans by mounting a 14-hit attack Wednesday.

Kevin Nelson, who belted a solo homer, was the winning pitcher despite giving up 10 hits and 10 runs in four innings.

Parks (1-4), who the victim of six hits and six runs (four earned) in only 1½ innings, suffered the loss.

Steve Russian went 2-for-4 for the Warriors. Juncal led Clarenceville's 13-hit attack, going 3-for-4 with an RBI.

Other offensive contributors for the Trojans included Ryan McEwen, two hits and four RBI; Jeff Balenger, a double, triple and three RBI; and Mark Skrlja, two hits and two RBI.

Erin Lacosse suffered the loss for Harrison.

■ Harrison on Wednesday lost at Walled Lake Westland, 10-9.

Western scored four runs in the bottom of the seventh off Harrison losing pitcher Amy Geary. The game-winning run was scored on a passed ball with two outs in the seventh.

Heather Marley, who led Western with two hits, tripled to start the seventh inning.

Lacosse scored three runs and stole three bases for Harrison, which had 11 stolen bases. Jenny Myslinski had a hit, scored two runs and stole two bases.

■ STEVENSON 20, FARMINGTON 11: Livonia Stevenson scored 11 runs in the bottom of the sixth inning Wednesday to overcome an 11-9 deficit and defeat the visiting Falcons.

Winning pitcher Laura Krol had four hits and Rachel Allor three for the Spartans, and Sheri Gromek drove in five runs with a pair of hits.

Jenny Sever, Tanya Osborn and Suzanne Major had three hits apiece for Farmington, which dipped to 1-5 in the Lakes Division and 4-9 overall.

Sever also had five RBI and scored three runs, and Nicole Bingham had two hits, two RBI and two runs.

That win started the Chiefs on a roll that saw them outscore Harrison 41-14 in the last seven events. The Hawks got eight of those points in the 200 dash, which Scott Gurke won (2:03.8).

Canton took first and second in the 400 and 800 runs. Nelson won the 400 (54.5) and Gudeath the 800 (2:01.5) with a season best. Justin McClain and Demey were second, respectively.

In between those races, John Martin upset Harrison's Don Bryant in the 300 hurdles. He also ran a season best (41.1) and clipped Bryant (41.2) at the wire.

The Chiefs led 58-56 after the 800, but Harrison regained the lead (64-59) following the 200 dash.

Canton responded with a sweep of the 3,200 run by Dave Yack (10:18.5), Ian Bedford (10:20.4) and Shawn McNamara (10:31). That put the Chiefs up 68-64 and set the stage for the finale in the 1,600 relay.

Gurke was a double winner as he upset Canton's Tom Raver in the shot put, throwing 44-3 on his final throw. Raver, who threw the shot 43-10, won the discus with a season and area best (163-5).

Canton's Mark Koziol won the high jump (6-10) and Harrison's Marc Ferguson the long jump (20-11) and Matt Citrin the pole vault (8-0).

Bryant was first in the high hurdles with a season and area best (1:53.5).

best of 14.5.

Jason Granger won the 100 dash (11.2) and teamed with Ahsan Allos, Gili Chavez and Ferguson to give the Hawks first in the 800 relay (1:54). Canton had a better chance to beat Harrison than in the 400, but was a close second at 1:35.

Canton began the running events with a victory in the 3,200 relay (9:08.4) from McClain, Todd Smith, Demey and Kelch.

The Chiefs, who have another big dual Tuesday at home with Northville, are 3-1 in the Western Division and 5-1 overall. The Hawks are 2-2 and 3-2.

■ NORTH FARMINGTON

The Rocks won 11 events, including the four relays, and improved to 3-1 in Lakes Division duals Thursday when they defeated host North Farmington 86-51.

Russ Polcyn and Jay Casey had three firsts apiece for Salem, two as members of relay teams.

Polcyn won the 400 dash (54.2) and Casey the 200 dash (24.1). Polcyn was the lead runner on the 3,200 and 1,600 relays, and Casey competed in the 800 and 400.

Don Johnson took first place in the 100 dash (11.4) and was on the 400 relay. Adam Bakowski participated in a pair of relays.

Marlins begin soccer playoffs

Farmington Hills Mercy carries momentum into a Catholic League Central Division playoff soccer game today against Birmingham Marian after ending last week with two wins.

On Friday, visiting Dearborn Edsel Ford had trimmed a 2-0 lead to one early in the second half before Mercy added two insurance goals for a 4-1 victory.

Margaret Wirth scored twice for the Marlins, 10-4-1 overall. Wirth's goals were assisted by Carrie Dzindos and Heather Richards.

The other two Mercy goals were scored by Theresa Cicco and Flannery Campbell.

The Marlins completed their regular Catholic League season with a 3-1 win Wednesday at Livonia Ladywood. Mercy finished 7-1 in the league and finished atop the division for the third consecutive year.

Cicco opened the scoring with an unassisted goal, and Mercy took a 2-0 lead before halftime on a goal by Richards. Dzindos recorded an assist.

After Ladywood's Amy Colillon closed the margin to one with 16 minutes to play, Richards set up

Campbell for the final Marlins tally.

Amy Watroba and Beth Chmielewski shared time minding the Mercy net in both games.

Mercy hosts Marian today at 4 p.m. The winner will host the Riverview Gabriel Richard-Dearborn Divine Child winner Wednesday at 4 p.m.

■ FARMINGTON 3, CENTRAL 0: Farmington evaded its record at 2-2 in the Lakes Division and improved to 3-1 overall with its shutout victory Friday against visiting Walled Lake Central.

The Falcons were led by Chrissy Mahon, who had two goals — one unassisted and the other assisted by Jill McCluskey. Michelle Lorenz scored the first Farmington goal off a pass from Maggie Trump.

"The girls and I are real pleased regarding how well we moved the ball," Farmington coach Cathy Cole-Kanman said. "We played terrifically sound, and I was pleased with how well the midfielders distributed the ball."

Cole-Kanman was especially happy with the play of forward Eunice Lee, who didn't score but had many of the 14 Farmington shots.

"She was certainly a future for us up front and helped to frustrate their goalkeeper and defense. She really played her role," Cole-Kanman said.

O'Connell paces Mercy effort

Farmington Hills Mercy sophomore Eileen O'Connell was first in four events Friday at the Lansing Waverly Invitational.

The Marlins finished second with 86 points in the 13-team girls track event, its highest finish ever there.

O'Connell won the 400-meter dash in 59.7 and the 800 run in 2:27.2. Mercy coach Gary Servais said O'Connell had her best performances Friday.

The 3200 relay team of Dawn DiPonio, Sharmila Prasad, O'Connell and Nicole Pryor finished first in 10:02.5. The 1600 relay unit of DiPonio, O'Connell, Pryor and Amy Dinges won in 4:13.6.
