Most Christians believe that Jesus Christ came to die for the sin of all people. But the Bible clearly teaches that He only came to die for those whom He refers to as "His people" (Matt. 13) and "His sheep" (John 10:1-16). Each one that Jesus died for will be certainly and eternally saved, even as Jesus Himself said John 12:48. If you're hungry to learn about the true Christ of the Bible, come study with us.

FAITH EXPLAINS THE SECRET OF MARRIAGE AS COMPROMISE

No two people, whether they be friends, relatives, business associates or marriage partners, will ever agree on everything, and the sooner they realize that, the better. This is most important with a couple planning to get married. It is best if they can iron out most of the rough spots ahead of time, such as religion, money matters, children, and all the other areas of possible contention that are likely to crop up later on. Nevertheless, some of them are bound to arise, and if no agreement on them can be reached, the couple should seek the advice of the clergyman at their House of Worship. After all, their marriage began there at the altar. In fact, perhaps just seeing it again might help to rekindle the love that brought them there in the first place.

In a successful marriage, there is no such thing as one's way...only the way of both.
