Shirley Hulet Has Lead Role In LRTG 'Waltz'

By BETTY MASSON
With two veterans heading the cast, the Livonia-Redford Theatre Guild will present three evenings of laughter Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 29 and 30 and May 1.

The veterans are Moya Taormina, who appeared in the guild's first production in 1954, and Shirley Hulet, who was starred in its second season in 1955.

Neither looks it in rehearsal, but both act with a sureness that testifies to their years of experience.

THE GUILD will take to the stage of Bentley High School Auditorium, 15100 Hubbard, Livonia, with the presentation of Jean Anouilh's drawing room farce, "Waltz of the Toreadors," each evening at 8:30.

For advance tickets, call Mrs. Edward J. O'Connell, 26639 Robert Drive, Livonia.

In a departure from her last role with the guild when she played a lonely German widow in the musical "Cabaret," the incomparable Mrs. Hulet will be seen as Mme. St. Pe, the wife of a variety-loving French general.

As Mme. St. Pe, she plays a woman who has taken to hypochondria to hang on to her husband, and the public should be warned that she has a laugh that is contagious.

She also has a collection of costumes, which have helped with the authenticity of the play, set circa 1910.

MRS. TAORMINA plays Mlle. De St. Suverte, Mrs. Hulet's rival. She has been the general's true, but chaste, love for 17 years, and the point of the play is the resolution of this long-standing love affair.

A newcomer to the guild, Errol Fortin, takes the lengthy role of the general. He looks the part to perfection.

Fortin appeared with the Farmington Players last fall as the clergyman in the play "Half Way Up the Tree."

A former Stevenson dramatics teacher, now on the staff of the University of Michigan, Dr. Jerry Sima plays the part of Gen. St. Pe's young and naive secretary, Gaston.

The general's two noble daughters, Sifonia and Estelle, are played by blond Victoria Cross and dark-haired Jan Nakonezny, both of Redford Township.

A Farmington resident and another long-time guild member, Howard Egan, plays the role of Dr. Bonfant, the general's friend and possibly Mme. St. Pe's lover.

Other roles are taken by Linda Wotring, Cheryl Stewart and Norman Smith, all of Livonia, and Tanya Bone of Westland.

The director is Jim Wotring and the assistant director is Mrs. Tournaud.

Redford Group Plots And Stages Melodrama

What happens when a dreadful villain, fierce Indians and southeasterly rangers come to visit an inn occupied by sweet young maidens? Members of the Redford Suburban League Theater Guild claim you'll have to see it to believe it.

YOU'LL BE able to see it April 30, May 1 or 2, in Redford Union High School, 17711 Kinloch, Redford Township. Performances are at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and at 7 p.m. Sunday. For tickets contact Mrs. James Muir, 14941 Delaware, Redford Township.

The original play, entitled "What Did Dudley Do Wrong?" or How to Slay a Mortgage Without Really Trying" is an old-fashioned melodrama. It is the result of the work of 100 members of the league, and proceeds will go to help the mentally retarded and community projects.

Betty Shick is producer of the play and Marge Titus is the director. Mayadene McKenzie is in charge of the music and Harriet Fernandez is the choreographer.

IN THE CAST are Ted Melton, as Polluted Water;

Theresa Capatine, Illya; Bob Bellucci, chief; Dave Neuser, corporal; Doug Rouse, captain; Betty Rouse, Edwina; Marge Sorenson, Maude; Nancy Naudi, Melody; Beverly Accetturi, Elvira; Vic Slapik, Dudley; Marylou Bradley, Mountain-Dew; Jim Wollison, Saunders; Gil Gillard, Jones; Bob Anderson, Boone; Mike Accetturi, Chicken Feather; Lou Wilkin, Turkey Neck; Herm Prieb, Crazy Legs; June Bellucci, Chief's wife, and Pete Sorenson, Medicine Man.

Dancers include Bev Accetturi, Lee Gillard, Nancy Naudi, Doris Carlson, Beatrice Tierney, Louis and Paul Kuhner, Colette Kolop, Dorothy Young, Dorothy Slapik, Mildred and Charles Burt, Ginny Burkhardt, Lois Scuphalm, Carol Metevier, Roberta Ramsey, Kathy Hutson and Clara Monach.

HE'S DUDLEY—Victor Slapik has the title role in the play, "What Did Dudley Do Wrong?" being presented by the Redford Suburban League Theatre Guild, April 30, and May 1 and 2. For tickets, call Mrs. James Muir, 14941 Delaware, Redford Township.
