POLICE/FIRE CALLS

Former Farmington resident Grace Ann Davey is awaiting prison designation after she was convicted of bank fraud and deceiving the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

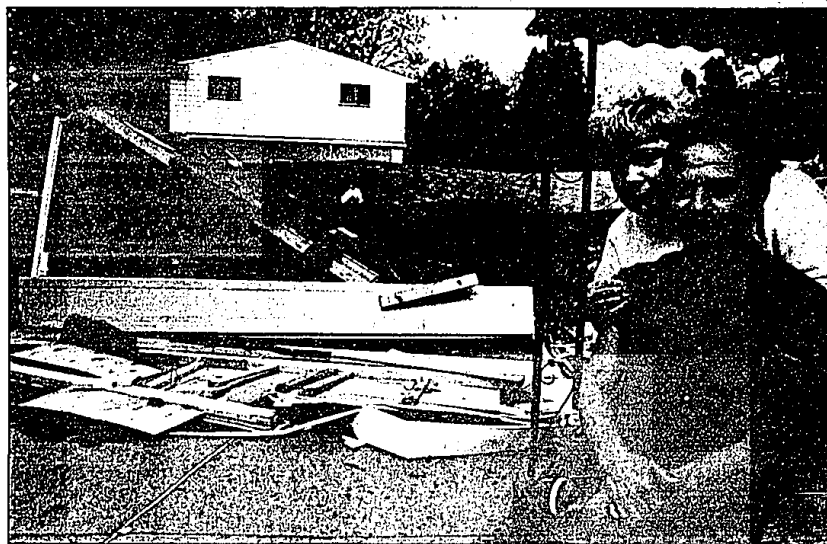

Davey, who used to work for a Southfield based company, was extradited from Winnipeg, Manitoba, in September 1992 after embezzling about $1,100,000 over a two and half year period.

Previously convicted of embezzlement in Arizona, Davey pleaded guilty to the charges.

She will serve 44 months.

According to her attorney, Edward Wisnow of Southfield, Davey has returned a portion of the money she embezzled, along with vehicles and horses she bought with the money.
