The Bible teaches that all carnal blessings are in Jesus Christ (Eph. 1:3). The question then is asked, How does a person get into Christ's Kingdom? It is simply and clearly answers this question. Those that are in Christ were chosen to be in Christ by God himself before the world was even made. God's choice of those to be in Christ was based only on his own will and grace. If you are seeking the grace of God, come worship with us.

FATHERS CAN MAKE MISTAKES, BUT THEY DO TRY THEIR BEST

One father is more than a hundred schoolmasters.
—George Herbert
"...hear the instruction of thy father."
—Proverbs 1:8

When you were young, your dad was there.
Undoubtedly you can recall:
He taught you what it means to share,
As well as how to hit a ball.
He also taught you right from wrong.
With lessons that he hoped you'd heed:
So you would always get along.
And where he failed, you would succeed.
But in your teens you broke away,
And then no longer were impressed
With anything he had to say:
Convinced of course, that you knew best.
At last, through faith you saw the light
Of how your father showed the way:
Although he wasn't always right,
Let's pay him homage on this day.
