MTV's 'Real World' returns for new season

BY JOHN CROOK

MTV launches the second season of "The Real World" on Thursday, June 24. In documentary fashion, the 22 new episodes of the soap opera verite follow the adventures of seven young adults in Los Angeles, primarily within the beachfront loft they share.

"Dads in the Movies" is the logical Father's Day theme on AMC for Sunday, June 20. Scheduled films include "It's a Wonderful Life" with James Stewart, "The Iron Major" with Pat O'Brien and "Mr. Blandings Builds His Dream House" with Cary Grant.

TNN offers "Cheyenne Frontier Days With Charlie Daniels and Friends" on Monday, June 21. Joining Daniels for musical performances will be the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band and Marty Stuart. The hourlong special from Cheyenne, Wyo., also features highlights from the world's largest rodeo.

Director Steven Soderbergh hits pay-dirt with his first feature, "Sex, Lies, and Videotape." His second and even more controversial film, "Kafka," debuts Friday, June 25, on Cinemax. Academy Award winner Jeremy Irons stars in the political thriller, which is filmed partially in black and white.

Featuring live coverage for the first time, HBO Sports returns to the All-England Lawn Tennis & Croquet Club for the 19th straight year to present "Wimbledon '93" beginning Monday. Host Jim Lampley will join sports analyst Billie Jean King.
