

Sports show plays road game in Ontario

LARK SAMOUELIAN

The co-producers of Sports Yesterday and Today are taking the television program international to Canada.

Mark Adler and Alan Feldman are working with McClean Hunter staff in London, Ontario. They will be providing a remote van and crew. The program manager is Earl Catchpole and the community TV producer is Kristin Van DeNeucker. The general manager is Mark Zorbe. Mark Adler will direct.

The on-location shoot will be at the Otto Sports Bar. It is known for the ambience especially for the sport of hockey. This local watering hole will host a segment of Sports Yesterday and Today. The owner of the establishment will share with host Alan Feldman how he came upon much of his memorabilia.

The format of Sports Yesterday and Today is an open and close featured in the set of an old locker room. The content is usually exciting because the producers enjoy going to on-location scenes to create the variety sports program. Cable Connection will interview Mark and Alan after their travels to learn of special preproduction planning for an international television shoot.

Canada hosted Community Television back in the early '70s so they have been understanding of the importance through encouraging local diversity in programming for years. Good luck guys, this will be exciting.

OBITUARIES

MAYME I. WEHVLAINEN

Mrs. Wehvilainen, 72, of Redford died June 28 as a result of injuries in an auto accident.

Born in Wainola, Mass., Mrs. Wehvilainen was a homemaker. Survivors include her sisters, Jennie Tulikangas of Houghton and Saima Niemisto of Farmington; many nieces and nephews.

Services will be July 1 at St. John's Lutheran Church in Redford, with the Rev. Rodney L. Eubank officiating. Burial will be in Parkview Cemetery, Livonia.

Memorials may be made to the church. Arrangements were made by the Thayer-Rock Funeral Home, Farmington.

Library plan set for Aug. 10 vote

Voters in the Farmington Community Library district will vote on a proposed tax that would authorize a bond issue of up to $1.5 million to build a new 80,000-square-foot library on the city-owned McMahon property, on the east side of Orchard Lake Road, south of I-696 across from the Oakland Community College Orchard Ridge Campus entrance.

The election is scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 10.

The new Dynix system will help ease some of the space crunch by allowing people to access the library's card catalog from their home or office 24 hours a day. In addition, an enhancement purchased by the Friends of the Library for $15,000 will allow the public to check indexes of journal articles by subject and should be operational by September.

"We have a lot of families with young children," she said. "I don't believe that my three children would have been able to accomplish what they have without this library. They are all U-M graduates and one is going for a doctorate at MIT. The library was like a second home for them."

Another new feature of the library's computer system will be an information and referral/community resources module that will allow anyone with a computer and modem to find out about services offered through more than 100 organizations in the Farmington area. Information about organizations and a calendar of events will be accessible beginning in September.

"We've had whopping success this year at getting new members," Greenberg said. "We've had about 250 new members join since May 1. We had a citywide solicitation. Basically, that's where a lot of our funds come from."

Greenberg said the Friends number about 1,500. Most, like Greenberg, have more than a passing interest in providing a first-class library system.

Tim Blisson

Blisson's Eagle project involved a service project to benefit Farmington Community Center. Blisson's award was presented by scoutmaster Jeff Green, with Alan Maddaford, John Farley and State Rep. Jen Dolan on hand to add their congratulations to those of Blisson's family, troop members and families and friends.

Recent grad earns Eagle honor

Tim Blisson, 1993 graduate of Harrison High School, received his Eagle Scout Award June 4 from Boy Scout Troop 389 in Nardin Park United Methodist Church, Farmington Hills.

Blisson's scouting career began in Webster in 1985. He started in Troop 389 in 1986. He has had troop positions of historian, patrol leader, instructor, and assistant patrol leader. He has made High Adventure trips to such places as Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico, and has sailed Lake Huron. He also served a stint as a counselor in training for four weeks at Lost Lake Scout Reservation.
