Student Exchange seeks host families

ASEE International Student Exchange Programs is seeking local host families for students participating in the Farmington Hills Intensive Language Program this August.

These exchange students from Japan have studied English for a minimum of three years. They are bright, curious and anxious to learn about this country through living as a part of an American family and sharing their own culture and language with their newly adopted host family.

The students are sponsored by ASSE, a non-profit public benefit organization that is United States Information Agency designated. Each ASSE student is insured, brings his or her own personal spending money, and expects to bear his or her share of household responsibilities.

They arrive on July 27 and will depart from the Farmington area Aug. 26 to begin the traditional high school exchange year in communities throughout the United States and Canada.

These high school students are screened and qualified by ASSE. They attend classes four days a week and participate in all day excursions every Friday.

Teens to be tried as adults in robbery

Two Detroit teens were bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court on armed robbery charges.

Leonard Jerald Loving, 16, and Howard LaQuinn Hunt, 15, were bound over June 28 and will be arraigned before Circuit Judge Steven Andrews at 8:30 a.m. Sept. 13 in Pontiac.

The teens, who will be tried as adults, are accused of robbing Emory's Creative Jewelry on Orchard Lake near 14 Mile June 9. The two remain in custody in the Oakland County Jail. Judge Fred Harris changed bond from $50,000 cash to $50,000 corporate surety.

Because witnesses to the robbery who live in Ohio were on vacation and could not testify at the preliminary exam, Harris granted a defense motion to drop assault charges against the defendants.

Prosecutor Kirsten Nielsen plans to resubmit warrants on the assault charges, Farmington Hills Police detective Duane Fox said.
