team, batted .430 and had an on-base average of .630. She scored 25 runs and had 24 RBI.

Mitchell collected 25 hits, including four doubles and one home run. She struck out only six times in 95 at-bats and was 9-for-9 in stolen bases.

"Her biggest asset is her bat, without a doubt," coach Gary DeRoche said. "She got the key hit for us all the time."

Christl Wrybkowski, infielder, John Glenn: Wrybkowski had a big year at the plate, setting school records for hits (40), runs scored (40), RBI (33), doubles (nine) and home runs (four). She batted .500 and had 27 stolen bases out of 31 chances.

Wrybkowski played in the outfield last year but moved to shortstop in place of former Glenn star Carrie Rochwal. She had 49 at-bats, 73 assists and 13 errors.

"She really worked on her skills in the summer and improved a lot," coach Linda Jiminez said. "She's a real team player, a great kid."

Kate Strahan, infielder, Canton: Strahan also was good with the glove and a dependable batter. The senior second baseman and Mortlere formed the team's best keystone combination the past three years.

Strahan made only two errors and had a .983 fielding percentage. She hit .330, scored 34 runs and had seven RBI. She had 32 hits and was on base 50 percent of the time.

"She's probably the best second baseman I've seen at Canton," Arnold said. "She's a steady player. She wants to play all the time, wants to be in the position to knock in the winning run. She plays extremely well under pressure."

Jenny Kintz, outfielder, Garden City: The team's most valuable player set a school record for single-season RBI with 65 in 32 games, breaking the record of 44 by Kristal Matosic.

Kintz batted .400 and scored 39 runs. Her 46 hits included seven doubles, 13 triples and six home runs — the last two being school records, also. She will play at Henry Ford Community College.

"Jenny is by far the best power hitter we've ever had," coach Barry Patterson said. "She's very powerful, yet fast, and she has an aggressive eye at play. She hit in every big situation. She is certainly a big-time player."

Lisa Rozum, outfielder, Ladywood: The sophomore center fielder was the leadoff batter and made things happen for the Blazers. The switch-hitting Rozum hit .265, received 23 walks and scored 30 runs.

She struck out 10 times in 113 at-bats. She made only three errors in the outfield and had a .900 fielding percentage while making 35 putouts. Rozum made the All-Catholic and all-district teams.

"She has a great eye at the plate," Parsons said. "She put this in play when she had to do it. She has a lot of speed and makes things happen when she's on base."

"She wants to play softball in college, so she works hard at it."

Amanda Tubbaugh, outfielder, Salem: Tubbaugh finished her career with an outstanding senior season. She batted .468, scored 29 runs and had 42 RBI. Her hits included 10 doubles, five triples and two home runs.

"Amanda was the real leader on the team," coach Al Campbell said. "She was real dedicated and came every day to play. She was always the first one on the field, the last one off the field. She's a prime example of someone you really want to coach."

"She struggled her junior year but came back as a senior, really put her mind to it and worked really hard. She had a lot of achievements; she hit the ball well and fielded well."

Janie Baxter, outfielder, St. Agatha: The Class D all-star batted .516, scored 18 runs and had 34 RBI. A third of her 33 hits went for extra bases — three doubles, four triples and five home runs. She struck out just six times in 64 chances.

Baxter, a senior who signed with Madonna University, also will play in the high school all-star game later this month.

"She destroyed good pitching all season long," coach Bob Swedner said, adding Baxter led the Aggies in every offensive category.

"She's an aggressive hitter but led the team in walks. That was a chore for her because she likes to hit. Other teams respected her, and she was more selective."

Schoolcraft hosts Wolverine tourney

By BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

It will never match World Cup proportions, but the 14th running of the Michigan State Youth Soccer Association Ford Wolverine Soccer Tournament is going to be quite a jamboree.

Over 180 teams will converge this weekend on Schoolcraft College in Livonia. Teams from Michigan, Ohio, Wisconsin, Wisconsin and Ontario will vie for boys and girls age-group titles in competitive and recreational divisions.

All-day action begins at 8 a.m. on Saturday and Sunday. The divisional finals are scheduled to go off at 9 a.m. Monday. Livonia's Bicentennial Park will also host games.

Boys competitive titles up for grabs include under-11, -12, -13, -14, -15, -16, -17 and -19. The Michigan Wolves, MSYSA Cup under-17 champs, will play in the field. Boys recreational titles will also be decided for under-10, -12 and -14.

Girls competitive crowns on the line include under-12, -14 and -18.

"We appreciate the fact that both Schoolcraft and the Livonia Parks and Recreation Department have donated their facilities," said Irene Saucedo-Smith, tourney director and president of the MSYSA. "This is the only tourney our organization runs in the state. The money we raise goes toward our Olympic Development Program."

SOCCER

Chiquita Challenge

Rick Davis, former 10-year captain of the U.S. National Team, will conduct the Chiquita Challenge, a soccer skills competition, from noon to 3 p.m. Saturday at Schoolcraft College. The challenge is being held in conjunction with the MSYSA Wolverine Soccer Tournament.

Davis, now 34, played for the New York Cosmos where he was named North American Soccer League Player of the Year (1979). He is currently involved with national team development and broadcasting.

The Chiquita Challenge is a test of soccer skills, combining ball control, dribbling, passing, and shooting elements in a single training course.

The event is open to youngsters ages 6-14. Competition will be broken up into eight age groups: boys and girls 6-and-under, 10-and-under, 12-and-under, and 14-and-under.

Registration includes a free Chiquita T-shirt and a Rick Davis autographed photo (with Chiquita proofs-of-purchase).

Other soccer prizes to be given away include a complete and authentic U.S. World Cup Team uniform (courtesy of Adidas and Soccer Corner and Soccer Locker). Drawings will take hourly during the challenge.
