How much do you value the Scripture? Do you read the Bible enthusiastically every day, or do you have a book which you seldom read at all? God said that he valued the Word of God more than the necessary food (Lk 23:12). David said that the Law of God was better to him than thousands of gold and silver (Ps 119:72). Do you share the Word of these men for the Scripture? If you do, come worship with those who also love the Bible

ALONG WITH MAN'S WORKS, LET US ADMIRE GOD'S WONDERS

About this time of year, many of us will be taking our vacations, and our plans for them are as varied as the possible places we can go.

We could visit our cities and other places of interest that we've never seen before, including the national parks. If the budget permits, we could venture to foreign countries, by land, sea or air. However, if it doesn't permit any of these things, there is always camping out in the woods or on a nearby beach, if there is one.

Wherever we go, after seeing the huge shopping malls, etc., we should take the time to admire the beauties of God's creation, and visit a House of Worship, if possible. We should thank God for these natural wonders, and also for watching over us on our travels until we're safely home again. He never takes a vacation.

"Let the wilderness and the cities give glory unto the Lord."
—Isaiah 11:12
