Exhibition offers special summer trips

By Mary Klemic
Syary Warrs
A stop at the summer invitational show at the Lawrence Street Gallery in Pontiae can enhance your summer travel plons.
You can take in a variety of different sights, or the floral florry of the season, by visiting the gallers at 29 W. Lawrence. Featured works can be as hot as the summer sun or as cool as a sip of lemonade. The exhibit continues to July 15. It features sculpture, prints, ceramics, paintings and works of New York images by Iris Czajkowski, a three-dimensional watercolor/mixed media work by Terri Melnick of a city sidewalk and a rendering of a desolate street by Vince Orbaczewski.

Jeri Feliwock's mixed media "The Jazz Dancers" and "Cele-bration" have the sparkle of fire-works, as do the mixed handmade paper collage by Jeanne Morley, with their glints of gold. Ricki Berlin's abstract "Mist" has the soft touch of a gentle rain.

Portraits include a hunter with a deg by Poul Kekkonen, a man with a small animal by Laun Whitesides Hest and people waiting in a fried food line by Carole Fahman. Marcia M. Tourney takes a look at pelicans and other bride. A work in aqua medium by Joyce Manke features fish, and a watercolor collage by Lillian Moran birds and trees.

The glories of the next season are presented in such works as "Autumn Blaze" by Marilyn Blinder, "Autumn Splendor" by Ann Hildebrandt and a fall postel painting by John Salota.

Pieces not on a canvas include Karen McDavitt's clay sphere, a ceramic fruit bowl and ceramic wall hanging of a house by Blaine Caramic wall hanging of a house by Blaine and the succession of the work of the succession of the work of the succession of the succession of the work are serigraphs, glass and cast bronze pleces.

Hours are 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday-Thursday, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday. Call 334-6716.
