The Observer/ MONDAY, JULY 19, 1993

POLICE/FIRE CALLS

Listed below are some of the Famington-area police incidents fire calls and court cases report-ed during the past week.

■ THEFTS A 21-inch Blanchi bloycle worth $1,000 was stolen from a carport at the Orchard Creek Apartments on Orchard Lake in Farmington Hills July 13-14.

A diamond ring with $4,000 was stolen from a residence at the Muirwood Apartments on Wood-side in Farmington Hills June 22-25.

A pink and purple racing bicy-cle worth $1,000 was stolen from a residence on Bridlehills Court in Farmington Hills June 11-22.

BAD CHECKS

B BAD CHECKS Checks written between May 30 and June 28 for three garage doors to Rashid Builders on Robinson in Farmington Hills for $1,674.90 did not have sufficient funds to back them.

I VANDALISM

A garage door at a residence on Glouster Circle in Farmington Hills was severely dented July 9, causing $300 in damage.

A 1985 Dodge Aries had its windshield broken, causing $200 in damage, when an unknown ob-ject hit the vehicle traveling on Farmington Road near Colfax July 14. The driver was not in-jured.

Where's a police officer when you really need one? What do you do if a stranger offers you candy or a ride home? Children and adults alike can or a ride home? Children and adulta alike can fund out the answers to these ouestions and other safety con-verse and were assets of the were and the safety con-verse and the safety con-verse and the safety con-when "Safety City" will be pro-tion 10:30 a.m. to 2 pm. "Safety City" is a mock town thom, police sailon, park, play and the safety of the safety of the safety procession, as well alies in a safety of the safety of the safety procession, and beserving other alies in a safety of the safety of the safety procession and the safety of the safety of the safety procession and the safety of the safety of the safety procession and the safety of the safety of the safety procession and the safety of the safety of the safety procession and the safety of the safety of the safety procession and the safety of the safety of the safety of the safety procession and the safety of the safety BREAK-INS A pneumatic nail gun worth $600 was atchef from a 1987 white and blue Ford parked on Renesso-laer in Farmington Hills July 12-14. The passenger alda window was broken during the break-in, causing $125 in damago.

B SÉXUAL ASSAULT A 12-year-old Farmington Hills girl told police she was sexually assaulted by a 35-year-old man and a 45-year-old man at her home on Nine Mile Rand boween March 1 and April 30. She has been taken from the realistence for fear the incidents would be re-peated. The suspects are being questioned.

A cart clephone worth $520 was stolen from a white 1988 Acura parked at the Strawberry Lane Apartments on Strawberry in Farmington Hills July 14-15. The driver's side window was damaged during the break-in. Carole Alameddine, a teacher at ast Middle School in Farming-Coroce Atameddine, a teacher at East Middi School in Farming-ton Hills, recently participated in a three-day seminar, "The Con-temporary Middle East," at the University of Michigan. Sponsored by the U-M's Center for Middle Bastern and North Af-rican Studies, the session fea-tured discussions on the Arab-la-raell and Persian Gulf conflicts, religious tensions and extremists, A radar detector worth $250 was stolen from a green 1993 Mer-cury Sable parked at Shot's Tav-ern on 10 Mile in Farmington Hills July 7. The car sustained $250 in damage during the break-in.

Summer series presents 'Safety City'

will receive safety certificates to indicate a successful completion of the "safety course." The hands-on exhibit was pro-duced by Encyclopaedia Britanel-ca USA and was part of the first annual Summer Fun Serles. It is being sponsored by the Farming-ton Downtown Development Au-thority and presented by the Farmington Dopartment of Public Safety, whose uniformed police officers and firefighters will be on hend to lead the tours and dem-onstrate different safety procehand to lead the tours and dem-onstrate different safety proce-dures. In addition to the tour, there will be a first truck and squad car on the scene where children can try on safety equipment used by irrefighters, and talk to them firsthand. Bicycie licensing will also be available for a fee of $2 and Farmington Bike Shop repre-sentatives will be on hand to demonstrate the importance of water scarcity, resource inequali-ty, human rights, women's roles and family life, U.N. involvement, and U.S. policy.

Teacher attends U-M seminar

Designed for 6-12th grade social studies teachers and librarians, the seminar provided curricular units for classroom use and re-source materials for media cen-ters, said seminar coordinator Betay Barlow.

using helmets for safe cycling. "Safety City' is the sixth event in the free series that is held each Wednesday throughout the sum-mor in the Downtown Farmington Center parking lot on Grand Riv-er, one block east of Farmington Road. The series is sponsored by the Farmington Downtown Develop-ment Authority (DDA), an agency of the city of Farmington commit-ted to maintaining a vigorous downtown district.

771-8660

. MC VINA DISCO.

425-7840

Not valid with any other promo

399-9666

Not exclude for public with the screent drop behaves $2,000, Article and the screent drop behaves $2,000, artic

And, your deposit is insured by the FDIC to the maximum amount allowed by law, meaning your money is in a safe, secure place. Our Money Market Plus Account even offers the convenience of limited checkwriting privileges and as many deposits and withdrawals as you wish.

So if you like the sound of earning high yields while maintaining instant liquidity of your funds, plus FDIC-insured safety, look to Standard Federal. Our Money Market Plus Account gives you the advantages you've been seeking in today's market.