

Library election topic of Viewpoint cable show

LARK SAMOUELIAN

CABLE CONNECTION
A special thank you to Bob Sake and Bill Cook for supplying the CATV Channel 12 converters for the Farmington Founders Day Parade, and to Melissa Limousins for supplying a limousine. Producers and crew were very appreciative. A parade is an obvious family event. One feels joyful and happy to be together. There are institutions that encourage this enthusiasm every day. The Farmington-Farmington Hills Library is such a structure. "Viewpoint," a cable television show hosted by Mayor Nancy Bates and Farmington Hills city manager Bill Costick, offers an open forum to Bev Papal, library executive director, and Jonathon Grant, chairman of Citizens to Support the Library. Because families are changing, the way we interact must change, as does the equipment we use. So must the library. There is a library election scheduled for Aug. 10. Select to watch this special edition of Viewpoint to more clearly understand the issues at hand. They will discuss the bond issue to construct a new building, and the operating millage for the library. After watching the program, voters will be much more understanding of the two ballot proposals for the Farmington Library. At home, in the schools and at work, we expect to exchange information at a rapid pace. The library interfaces all these entities and must be state-of-the-art. Select a convenient time to watch Viewpoint on the library election at: July 23, 7:30 p.m.; July 28, 9 p.m.; July 30, 7:30 p.m.; Aug. 5, 9 p.m.; and Aug. 6, 7:30 p.m. Be an informed voter. Your vote does count.

Fair concert, yacht cruise aid Rainbow Connection

A pair of fund-raising events in August will benefit the Rainbow Connection, an Oakland County non-profit corporation that fulfills the wishes of children with life-threatening illnesses. On Monday, Aug. 2, the organization will present "A Burst of Entertainment," featuring an eclectic mix of country, barbershop harmony, doo wop and rock. The concert will be held on opening night at the Oakland County 4-H Fair on the fairgrounds at 12461 Andersonville Road, Davisburg. Tickets are $6 for adults; children under 5 will be admitted free. For more information, call The Rainbow Connection at 551-1261. The organization will also sponsor a three-hour Great Water Yachts Comedy Cruise 7-10 p.m. Monday, Aug. 16, aboard the luxury yacht Infinity. The cruise will feature two hours of comedy by Mark Ridley's Comedy Castle, plus dancing under the stars to the musical accompaniment of Sound Production. The cruise is limited to the first 110 people. For more information, please call Amy Crouchman at 778-7030.

TO UNDERSTAND WHY WE HAD TO MOVE, PHOTOCOPY THIS 50,000 TIMES.

You've never seen 50,000 music titles in one place before. Of course, before Borders*, you'd never seen 100,000 different books in one store. Now both are at the new Borders Books & Music.

At the risk of harping, just think about what you'll find. 14,000 classical titles, including twenty-five recordings of Beethoven's 9th. 17,000 not-so-classical rock and pop titles. (The Velvet Underground? Eleven albums.) Enjoy Frank Sinatra? Use moderation when you see seventy-five titles. Jazz? 9,000. Of course, another reason for moving is to improve on what you've always had at Borders. Enough space to relax and sit down with a good book—even with a cup of cappuccino at our espresso bar. We've gone so far as to put in a children's section with storytime area, a music listening lounge, and a video section that includes classic films.

As for the music section, there'll be no bebop hip-hop musical irritation urging you out the door. The staff appreciates books and music and appreciates that you do, too. Maybe you should take some time to come see the new Borders Books and Music at our Grand Reopening. Which of our 143 classical fanfares would you like to play?
