town they are commanding guests, who television viewers find interesting and even controversial.

Four producers — Mark Adler and Alan Feldman went to Canada, Shirley Cash hosted Judge Edward Sosnick from the 48th District Court, and Harry Robertson sails Michigan from Caseville to Traverse City to Mackinaw. And what happens on Channel 12 as a result — television programing that is visually interesting.

The Canadian Sports Barcalled Autos Cheers is a host for such memorabilia; thus, encouraging Alan Feldman's dialogue to render histories from Canada throughout the United States as it related to sports. Mark Adler worked with the team, using remote equipment provided by the community access channel of McClean Hunter. The two crows worked very well — they were helpful and competent. The final program will be seen on London's cable Channel 12.

Shirley Cash develops a relationship for us to enjoy and understand Judge Sosnick, who developed or participated in the Michigan Judicial Institute regional on some real tough subjects. For example, identifying and understanding chemical dependency in district court cases, domestic volence issues, and SMILE — Start Making it Livatoring couples with children. Watch and learn with Shirley on "Cash Talks."

Watch and learn with Shirley on Cash Talks.

"The Great Escape" is the name of Harry Robertson's show. It is a visually exciting program to watch—a true sailing adventure which actually took several years in the making. Beautiful scenes flong the way of Mackinna is allowed to the sailboat, and an adorable puppy to warm the hearts as you dream while you're stiting watching television. It's all possible and it is made possible by each and everyone of you. Thank you for sharing your adventures with us to improve the television viewing on Channel 12.
