

Hills resident co-chairs Jewish campaign

Florine Mark Ross, a Farmington Hills resident and president and CEO of Weight Watchers Group Inc., and Norman D. Katz, a Bloomfield Hills resident and partner with the law firm of Katz, Victor and Yolles, have been appointed to chair the 1994 Allied Jewish Campaign.

Ross runs the largest franchise of Weight Watchers International, which employs more than 2,600 people.

She also is on the boards of the Community Foundation for Southeastern Michigan, Detroit Symphony Orchestra Hall Associates, the Eureka Foundation, the Michigan chapter of the Leukemia Society of America, the March of Dimes, the Michigan Women's Foundation, the United Foundation of Detroit and The Weight Watchers Foundation Inc.

Frequently cited for her service to the Jewish and general communities, Ross is a past chairperson of the Jewish Federation's Business and Professional Women's Division.

She is a member of the executive committee of the Federation and Sinai Hospital. Ross also is on the boards of the American Israel Chamber of Commerce, Detroit Friends of the Jewish Theological Seminary and the Weizmann Institute of Science.

President of the Detroit Institute for Children, she is past president of The Fashion Group of Detroit Inc. She serves on the national board of the Boy Scouts of America and is on the Detroit Area Council's executive committee.

Katz has been active with the Campaign and in the Jewish community for many years. A member of Federation's Executive Committee, he chaired the Campaign major gifts section and Federation's Culture and Group Services Planning Division last year.

A past president of the Agency for Jewish Education (formerly, the United Hebrew Schools), he was president of Federation's Young Adult Division (formerly, the Junior Division). He has served on the boards of Resettlement Service, the Jewish Home for Aged, Jewish Vocational Service and the American Jewish Committee.

Katz, who has been long involved with the Labor Zionist Movement, also served on the education committee of Congregation Shaarey Zedek and the community relations committee of the Jewish Community Council.

In addition, Katz was a commissioner with the Detroit Historical Commission and was involved with the Detroit Adventure Club.
