United Way seeks Hispanic volunteers

United Way of Oakland County is looking for volunteers to help observe and celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month, Sept. 15 to Oct. 15, with "A Celebration of Reading Day."

Reading day takes place Sept. 30. Hispanic volunteers and leaders from all walks of life will go into the classrooms of Pontiac and Waterford schools to share passages from books and detail the contributions Hispanics have made throughout history. In addition, readers will share some of their own life experiences and provide a message of encouragement to the children.

United Way of Oakland County sponsored a similar event during Black History Month earlier this year. More than 60 African-American volunteers went into eight area elementary schools to help inspire the children to achieve and take pride in their heritage. According to the 1990 census, there are nearly 20,000 Hispanics living in Oakland County, second only to Wayne County in Michigan. In Pontiac, the Hispanic population — 5,701 — makes up 8 percent of the total population.

Hispanics' high school dropout rates are three to four times higher than that of non-Hispanic white students, and more than 20 percent of the state's 200,000 Hispanics live in poverty, a report recently released by the Michigan Commission on Spanish Speaking Affairs said.

These statistics are all the more reason to provide children an opportunity to talk with Hispanic role models and help to increase their pride of heritage and self-esteem, said John Bueno, chairman of Hispanic Heritage Reading Day.
