Dancing Light: Luda Tcher-niak laid on intensely colored oils with a palette knife to create this impressionistic scene found at Stoney Creek Metropark.

Pursuing her dream: Moscow-born artist Luda Tcherniak has found artistic freedom with her gallery in Rochester. Tcherniak paints colorful, highly textured works of scenery and architecture.

Printmakers

Printmakers

The Bunting Gallory, in its new location at 514 S. Washington in Royal Oak for two months now (call 546-8420), is showing works by contemporary Japanese-printmakers through the second week of September. (The gallery was previously at 9-46 Mille and Woodward under the name East/ West Gallery.)
Tetsuro Sawada's silkscreen imagery features luminous akles.

Lithographer Toko Shinoda makes works that tickle the eye. They include such features as origami figures, optical illusions and items balanced on one another. Woodblock ortist Cliffon Karbu's pieces can be filled with vibrant color, or done in browns and blacks that look like rich wood. Also in the exhibit are fabric designer and lithographer Syuji Wako, and mezzotint artists Katsunori Hamanishi and Takeshi Katori.

Mary Klemic is editor of the Oakland County Creative Living section. You may call her at 901-2569. Her fax number is 644-1314.
