SHARON LEMUEUX/STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Play coming up: Earleen Kisher, secretary to the Farmington Board of Education, holds a gun as she plays the part of Aunt Eller in a rehearsal of "Oklahoma!" to be staged at North Farmington High School on 13 Mile Road at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and 2 p.m. Sunday. Tickets at $8 for adults and $6 for students and senior citizens are available at the door. For the first time, a school play involves adults and students from all three Farmington public high schools.

New music school in the area plays its overture

Music Makers Educational Center, a new center for music study, is currently registering students for fall lessons. Three unusual programs are offered. Call Music Makers Educational Center at 380-9898 for additional information or to register for lessons. Registration is now on. The fall quarter begins Monday, Sept. 27. All group classes will be at the Nardin Park United Methodist Church in Farmington Hills. Private lessons will be in Farmington Hills, Northville or Huntington Woods. The instructors — Karen Klimmek, Ellen Luby and Suzanne Moad — are established Suzuki and traditional string teachers and performers in the Detroit area.

Using the Suzuki method, weekly private and group instruction on cello or violin is combined with parental involvement to produce a high level of motivation and success. Children may begin Suzuki lessons as young as 3 years of age, but enrollment isn't limited to young students. The third program offers traditional private instruction on cello and violin for older or advanced instrumental students.

Botsford furniture returns to estate

Furniture, including some used by Thomas Edison, from the Henry Ford Estate in Dearborn has been returned to the estate after spending the past 40 years at the Botsford Inn in Farmington Hills. The estate bought several pieces from the John N. Anhut family, the owners of the Botsford Inn, using proceeds from the 1993 Henry Ford Estate Dinner Dance, an annual fund-raising event for the benefit of the preservation, restoration and educational programs of the estate, on the campus of the University of Michigan-Dearborn. "We are eager to see these pieces returned to this National Historic Landmark. I know the Henry Ford Estate will continue the fine tradition of the Anhut family's stewardship," said Rosamund Gjesten, chair of the 1993 Dinner Dance. In 1953, the Anhut family bought the furniture after Clara Ford's death. Auto pioneer Henry Ford and his wife Clara lived at the estate for 30 years. The pieces that will return to the estate include: a five piece hand-carved, limed oak bedroom suite; a French inlaid blue steel jewelry safe; a Boston rocker; a hand-carved, marble inlaid walnut buffet; wrought iron andirons; fire tools; and a hand-carved, walnut dining chair.
