

CC gridders lose, 7-0

The Toledo St. Francis football team scored on a long drive in the first quarter and dominated time of possession in the second half Saturday night to upset Redford Catholic Central 7-0 at Pontiac's Wiener Stadium.

The loss ended CC's 16-game winning streak that dated back to the first game of the 1992 season. The defending Class AA champion Shamrocks, 2-1 overall, were held to 85 yards total offense.

St. Francis marched 64 yards in 13 plays and scored on quarterback Bill Lanzinger's four-yard pass to flanker Mike Augustinick on third down and goal with 4:51 left in the first quarter. The extra point split the uprights to give St. Francis a 7-0 lead.

The Shamrocks only chance to score came in the fourth quarter when they reached St. Francis 27. But on fourth down and two, CC was called for offside and with the ball moved back five yards the Shamrocks were unable to convert the first down.

St. Francis had a pair of long drives in the second half that

Vikings roll to Pony victory

The North Farmington-West Bloomfield Vikings Pony football team scored three first-half touchdowns Saturday behind strong blocking of linemen Robbie Madvin and Dante Sanders and defeated the Westland Meteors 27-12.

The touchdown runs were scored by Aaron Diamond (15 yards), Brandon Rodgers (48) and Brent Rodgers (55), who also accounted for the last score on a 53-yard run in the fourth quarter.

The defense received strong play from Robert Belke, Chris Compo, Mike Farnick, Brian Gallagher and Ned Stojkovic. Brian and David Hickman, Mike Bowman and Trey Szopko also contributed to the win.

Grid contest could shift this week

By BRAD EMONS
STAFF WRITER

It may be a Vegas kind of weekend for high school football action.

Your friendly prep prognosticators may have to roll the dice, play a little roulette or even deal some blackjack to determine which teams they'll roll and draw.

The standings remained the same after Week No. 3, but the odds could quickly change once we enter Week No. 4.

Yours truly and the enemy (Dan O'Meara) each correctly picked 11 of 14 games. Emons' defense has been outstanding, but the Chargers (0-3) resemble the Pontiac Pussycats on offense, having gone scoreless in three games. PICKS: Northville goes loss No. 31 in a row on the Chargers.

Northville at Liv. Churchills: The Mustangs (2-1) were corralled last week by Harrison's defense, but still rate high in the Western Division of the Western Lakes Athletic Association. Churchills' defense has been outstanding, but the Chargers (0-3) resemble the Pontiac Pussycats on offense, having gone scoreless in three games. PICKS: Northville goes loss No. 31 in a row on the Chargers.

Friday's Games (all 7:30 p.m. unless noted)

Liv. Franklin at Farm. Harrison (3:30 p.m.): Franklin, 3-0 winner last year over the mighty Hawks, have lost three tough games by an average margin of 7.3 points. Quarterback Greg Mapple is averaging 187 yards passing (per game), but the Pats' defense is son, Harrison (2-1), meanwhile is riding high after topping a bucking Northville. Quarterback Joe Poci and fullback Nick Williams are starting to come around. PICKS: Harrison is the heavy favorite.

GRID PICKS

Liv. Stevenson at N. Farmington (4 p.m.): Stevenson (3-0) is living right, having won its last two on the final play of the game. The Spartans, led by quarterback Kevin Steczkowski and receiver Brad Morgan, are much improved. North (1-2), meanwhile, earned a hard-fought win over Farmington, 14-7. PICKS: Stevenson makes it four straight.

Cranbrook at Clarenceville (4:30 p.m.): The Cranbrook Grapes (2-1) looked anything but lachrymose after dispensing of Class D state-ranked Detroit Lutheran West last week, 20-6. The Trojans (1-2), led by breakout wide receiver Mark Kule and Mark Juncal, earned their first win by pouncing on Lutheran West last week, 20-6. PICKS: The Grapes stay in first place in the Metro's West Division.

Northville at Liv. Churchills: The Mustangs (2-1) were corralled last week by Harrison's defense, but still rate high in the Western Division of the Western Lakes Athletic Association. Churchills' defense has been outstanding, but the Chargers (0-3) resemble the Pontiac Pussycats on offense, having gone scoreless in three games. PICKS: Northville goes loss No. 31 in a row on the Chargers.

W.L. Western at Ply. Canton: Western (2-1) has won two straight after losing to Novi in the season opener, 7-0. The Warriors, however, may be without running back Alex Giller (ankle injury). Canton (2-1) was shaky on offense last week against Churchill, needing a turnover to beat the Chargers. PICKS: Canton has the edge.

Ply. Salem at W.L. Central: The Rocks (1-2) were hit hard by their last-second loss to Stevenson. Fullback Rob Shepley (thigh bruise) was not at full-strength last week, but could be the difference this time around. Central (2-1) is still smoldering from last week's pounding administered by John Glenn. Quarterback Ken Shiller was badly shaken up. PICKS: Salem gets back on the winning track.

Dearborn at Garden City: Dearborn (3-0), led by sophomore quarterback Kevin Keger, has outscored its opponents 58-6, but the three opponents are nothing to write home about. GC (2-1) boasts Jason "the Workhorse" Workman, who is coming off a 216-yard rushing performance against Southgate. PICKS: Emons says the Cougars' tougher schedule pays off, while O'Meara rides with the Pioneers in the Mega-White Division encounter.

Redford Union at Taylor Kennedy: Both teams are 0-3. So what can we expect? Wide receiver Greg Knight is RU's big-play threat, while Dana Mitchell is the man to stop for JFK. PICKS: RU breaks through, according to Emons, but O'Meara flies with the Eagles.

Red. Thurston at Dbn. Hts. Crestwood: Thurston (2-1) is playing an old Tri-River League opponent, so that's the good news. The Eagles, led by do-it-all receiver Jeff Lance (193 yards in receiving), defied Gibraltar last week, 48-13. Crestwood (1-2), coached by Floyd Carter, is hoping to rebound from losses to Garden City, 7-3, and Allen Park, 22-8. The Chargers' only win is a 6-0 triumph over Carleton. PICKS: Thurston quenches its thirst.

Wayne Memorial at Monroe: The Zebras (2-1) were supposedly inexperienced coming into the 1993 season, but have outscored their last two opponents, 59-2. Monroe (2-1) gave Mega-White favorite Fordson a tussle last week before losing 6-0. The Trojans own victories over Plymouth Canton (12-6 in overtime) and Woodhaven (16-14). PICKS: Emons says Monroe by a shade, but O'Meara earns his stripes with the Zebras.

SATURDAY'S GAMES

Lutheran Westland at Detroit Lutheran West (noon): West (2-1) is no longer best in the Metro Conference West Division after losing to Cranbrook last week. The Leopards, however, have the advantage in speed led by Robert Weller. Lutheran Westland (1-2) has a fine tight end in Jeff Lichtner and a fine linebacker in Troy Smith, but coach Dennis Tuomi, who coached by years at West before moving out to Cowan Road, feels a little like Wayne Fontes these days. Where's the offense? PICKS: The Leopards are too fast and elusive for the Warriors.

Bishop Burgess vs. Orchard Lake St. Mary's (1:30 p.m. at Garden City Junior High): The Spartans are 0-3, but at least they went down fighting in last week's 7-0 loss to Hamtramck St. Florian. Meanwhile, St. Mary's (3-0) is No. 1 in Class CC and loaded with talent. Defensive end Cameron Blinn, a 6-foot-4, 225-pound senior, is Big 10 material. PICKS: St. Mary's is the safe pick of the day.
