Mercy races to victory

Redford Catholic Central's boys cross country team, led by the Leo brothers, won Saturday's Shrine-Shamrock Invitational boys Division II title at Marsh-bank Park.

CC has won two straight Sham-rock Invitationals and eight of the rock Invitationals and eight of the 16 overall. The Shamrocks earned first place with 61 points and Milford came in second (110). Lake Orion (125) and Livonia Stevenson fifth (153). The Leo brothers usually lead the Shamrocks but for the first time this fail, sophomore Joe Leo finished abead of his older brother Mark Leo, a senior. Joe the Shamrocka but for the first time this fall, sophomore Joe Leo finished ahead of his older brother Mark Leo, a senior. Joe Leo took fourth place in 16 min-utes, 40 seconds and Mark Leo came in fifth place at 16:50. CC coach Tony Magni said Joe Leo took fourth place ahead of his brother in stride. "I think he was more excited about the team finishing first place than he did about beating lis brother," CC coach Tony Magni said. "Mark could have given up when he saw his brother go by but he did not. He hung in here because he had to do the job. He worked very hard to get as close to his brother ap ossible." Jeremy Short finished 13th for the Shamcoks (17:40) and Mike Danie was 17th (17:47). Matt Storeynski came in 22nd place (17:50), Brian Smith was 31st (16:31) and Derek Faunce was 43rd (18:24). Stevenson was led by Jason Hayward, who placed 12th overall (17:31). Other top Stwensor runners included Steve Warner, 28th place (17:55), Scott Crehana, 29th (17:57) and Brian Hayward, 37th (18:30). The Spatchas' An drew Beach was 47th (18:30). Westland John Olenn Kork 331 points. Henry Honyevut had Glenn's best finish, placing 26th (17:53).
