WEST FARMINGTON SCHOOL NOTES

Grant Howard is back in school after a long absence due to whooping cough and pneumonia.

Our first grade class now numbers seven little boys since Clair Button joined us.

We have a volley ball, baseball and bat, they make these spring days more enjoyable.

Dorothy Roggenkamp won the school championship in the spelling contest.

Miss Graham visited on Friday, and Miss Bachelor on Tuesday. We always enjoy visitors.

LAND OWNER OPPOSES PLACING OF EDISON CO. POLES, IT IS RUMORED

It is reported that one man on the Town Line road refuses to allow the Detroit Edison Co. to place poles on his property along the road, unless they pay a large sum of money for the privilege. His neighbors, it is said, are paying as large a sum to persuade the Edison Company to build a line on this road in order that living conditions may be made better.
