

Farmington Enterprise

FORTIETH YEAR—No. 22.

FARMINGTON, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1928

5 Cents Single Copy; $1.50 a Year

Farmington's Business Men Invite You! To Participate In Farmington's "BETTER BUSINESS DAY" SATURDAY, APRIL 7

Free Movies -- Special Offerings

AFTERNOON AND EVENING

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the free motion picture shows arranged by merchants of Farmington Saturday, in the Community Hall. Children and grown-ups alike are welcomed. There will be several reels of news and other interesting pictures, and as a feature

HAROLD LLOYD

in

"The Kid Brother"

Admission to the free movies will be by ticket only. It is only necessary to go to any one of the business-places whose advertising appears in the pages following, and ask for as many tickets as you need.

PERFORMANCES AT 2:30 p. m., 7 p. m. and 9 p. m.

Come and bring your Friends! It is not necessary to buy anything to obtain tickets for admission to the free movies.

The owners of over 40 business-places in Farmington have put forward their best efforts to offer, on "Better Business Day", the most attractive values in merchandise ever presented in this section. There are literally hundreds of bargains awaiting you in Farmington business-places Saturday. There is an almost unlimited variety of merchandise and service. Practically every line of business is represented.

Farmington business-men want you to call on them Saturday. Whether you buy or not, step into Farmington stores and get acquainted. Saturday is YOUR day in Farmington—make the most of it! Visit every store you possibly can, attend the free movies, stay as long as you like. There's a warm welcome for you in every business-place in Farmington Saturday.

Come Early -- Plan To Spend The Entire Day In Farmington

Specially Reduced Prices For Luncheons and Dinners

In order to make it convenient, especially for those living outside of Farmington, to remain in town as long as possible on Saturday, Farmington restaurant owners are offering splendid meals at practically half prices. Bring the family and spend the entire day in Farmington Saturday.