ingale, Mary Ruchko, Kenneth Wolfe, Viola Wolfe.

The boys and girls are trying very hard to be at school every day so we will be able to have a new shining star for attendance on our Gold Star card.

This Thursday will be a very happy time for the primary pupils as the three Wayne County rural supervisors are coming to visit us while Miss Stier, our student helping teacher, is here with us.

One of our little helpers, Doris Gilbert, brought a very lovely new plant for our schoolroom.

Elementary Grades

We are a Gold Star room now. We gained this honor by accomplishing twelve hard tasks given us by the County School Commissioner.

Our room is very proud of Joseph Smith, a member of the sixth grade, who won the school Spelling Bee. He won on the word "pastor." Gerald Ziegler has been absent this week.

Barbara Middlewood and William Owen celebrated their birthdays Tuesday of this week.

We hope that the parents of our room will be able to attend the P. T. A. meeting this Friday evening.
