"Swarm Control" will be the subject of discussion at the next meeting of the Beekeepers' Club of this section on June 30. F. W. Sheill, leader, announces as follows:

"Friends and Beekeepers: This is the main active season in beekeeping and it is important that the beekeepers get together and talk over the question of 'Swarm Control'."

The next meeting will be held at the Honey Cabin Bee Yard on June 30, Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The Bee Yard is located on the North Farmington road, three and one-half miles north of Farmington City and one mile south of North Farmington, near Thirteen Mile road.

Bring your bee veil and partake in the fun. The colonies of bees will be opened and demonstrations will be made. Comparison of the various colonies will be made to show their relative values as honey gatherers, and all questions will be answered to the best of the beekeeper's ability present.

Mr. Edwards, our commercial and local beekeeper will be present with his saxophone and his friendly disposition. He will be glad to give his valuable experience in comb honey production.

80-YEAR OLD RESIDENT OF WALLED LAKE THROWN FROM HORSE; IS UNHURT

H. J. Smith of Walled Lake narrowly escaped serious injury Thursday when thrown by his horse. The 80-year-old equestrian was badly shaken up but no bones were broken, although he was thrown on his head and shoulders. This was the first time Mr. Smith had been thrown by the horse, although the animal had made numerous attempts, succeeding by accident this time.

A group of young people had been the guests of Mr. Smith's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Withey, and one of the young ladies was riding another horse beside Mr. Smith. The rider was inexperienced and the horse was taking advantage of her inexperience to give her a thrilling ride.

Mr. Smith was making an attempt to help her and neglected his own horse long enough for the animal to get her head between her legs and buck, throwing the aged rider over her head.

The Original "Home, Sweet Home"

At East Hampton, Long Island, still stands the home immortalized by Thomas Howard Payne, who was born 173 years ago this month. Payne achieved fame as poet, writer, actor, editor, and candidate American Consul to Tunis. But although endowed with unusual talents, he never managed to save for the future, regardless of his income.

While on the verge of starvation in Paris, in 1823, he wrote the opera "Clari, the Maid of Milan" and in it introduced "Home, Sweet Home." In the song Payne wrote the heartache of the wanderer—the man who in old age still misses the joy, the comforts, the security that go with a home one can call one's own.

"Home, Sweet Home" or any other worth-while possession can be yours—if you build a reserve fund through regular deposits here.
