BEAUTIES OF MICHIGAN TOLD IN SERIES OF ADS BY TELEPHONE COMPANY

First of a series of advertisements in which the Michigan Bell Telephone Company calls attention to the advantages of Michigan as a vacation land, appears in this issue of the Farmington Enterprise. The second is scheduled for publication a week from today and others will appear during the remainder of July and the first of August.

The series is being published in more than 250 newspapers throughout Michigan. According to Roy Crowe, manager in this area for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, it is felt that no part of the continent offers so many advantages to the tourist and vacationist as does Michigan, with its excellent highways, myriad lakes and rivers, vast stretches of forests, hundreds of miles of coast line, unequalled opportunity for summer sports, its well equipped camp sites and its hotels, and its wonderful climate.

CALLS YOUR ATTENTION TO CLOVERLAND
(In the Upper Peninsula of Michigan)

Unrivaled in its delightful summer climate, Cloverland, in the Upper Peninsula, attracts thousands of summer visitors.

Well-located cities, fine roads, convenient railways, virgin forests and many rivers and lakes make Cloverland's ten and a half million acres a truly delightful haven for the tourist.

Twenty-eight telephone exchanges and a plant of nearly $5,000,000 serve Cloverland. Nearly a million dollars have been added to that plant this year.

Long Distance telephone service offers the visitor to Cloverland the opportunity to keep in touch with home and office. And, Long Distance Rates Are Surprisingly Low!

For instance, note the long distance rates for a three-minute conversation, between 4:30 a. m. and 7:00 p. m., to the following Upper Peninsula points:
