"SUNNY DAYS," BIG MUSICAL HIT IS COMING TO DETROIT

"Sunny Days," heralded as the funniest musical comedy and the peppiest dancing show of the year, and produced by Hassard Short, who gained lasting fame by his staging of the famous Music Box Revue, comes to the Shubert-Detroit Opera House for one week only, commencing Sunday night, July 29. The big musical hit is coming direct from a season's run at the Fox's Cuban's Theatre in Chicago and will stop at Detroit briefly on its way to Atlantic City and Boston where it will stay for the balance of the summer.

A list of the huge cast seems to justify the claim of its advance representatives for it will present five famous stars including Billy B. Van, dean of American comedians, Jeanette MacDonald, late star of "Yes, Yes, Yvette," and Jack Sheehan.

"Sunny Days" is a musicalized version of the French French film, "The Kiss In A Taxi." The well-known stars are supported by a large and youthful chorus of dancing beauties augmented by Peggy Cornell, formerly of Ziegfeld Follies and Evangeline Raleigh and Maxine Carson of Whiter Garden fame.

SUMPTUOUS CAKES

From tea rooms and coffee shops, restaurants and wayside inns, one gathers recipes which are found so popular. Many of them are more costly as to time and material than the majority of housewives find it possible, yet it is a pleasure to read them and think, "Some day I want to try that."

Heaven's Food—Beat the whites of four eggs with one-fourth teaspoonful each of salt and cream of tartar to a stiff froth, add one cupful of granulated sugar and beat again, then add the yolks of three eggs that have been beaten until light and fold in one cupful of pastry flour. Bake in a round pan which has been buttered and floured. Turn the cake over to cool and prepare the second layer. Dissolve one and one-half squares of chocolate in four tablespoonsfuls of water over hot water, then add one cupful each of sugar, thick sweet cream and cook over hot water three minutes; add one-half teaspoonful of vanilla and two table-spoonfuls of gelatin softened in two tablespoonsfuls of water and stirred in until dissolved. Pour into the same mold as the cake, baked and set aside to become firm. Unmold on top of the cake which has been spread lightly with an orange filling or with whipped cream, and cover the top with cream and sprinkle with chopped pecans or pistachio nuts and candied violet.

Surprise Cakes—Take one-half cupful of butter, one and one-half cupfuls of sugar, and when well creamed add the yellow of three eggs; beat this with the rest. Add the grated rind of an orange, one cupful of milk alternately with two and one-half cupfuls of flour sifted with two and one-half teaspoonsfuls of baking powder and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt. Fold in the stiffly beaten whites and bake in well-greased gen. pans. When cool cut off the tops and fill with orange custard. Replace the tops and cover with a thick marshmallow frosting. Sprinkle pistachio nuts or candied violets.
