NEIGHBORS OF 50 YEARS AGO GATHER ON HER BIRTHDAY

First Farmington Friends of Mrs. Alice Jones Honor Her 78th Anniversary

Fifty years ago that Mrs. Alice Joyce, now of Novi, came to Farmington as the bride of Hamilton H. Jones, to make her home among Farmington people. She found her neighbors friendly and helpful.

One her seventy-eighth birthday, celebrated this week, she found her Farmington friends exceptionally loyal, too. For on that day, eighteen of the ladies gathered to help her celebrate her anniversary. They were her first neighbors when she arrived in Farmington as a young bride.

Many were the gifts and good wishes Mrs. Jones received. Luncheon was served for the guests, and a most enjoyable day was spent.

Mrs. Jones' husband, Hamilton H. Jones, passed away eleven years ago. He was a farmer, having occupied land two miles north of Farmington.

Those who gathered to help Mrs. Jones celebrate her birthday were:

Miss Ida Steele, Mrs. Clara Wixom, Mrs. Ebs Sprague, Mrs. Dora Jones, Mrs. Francis Halsted, Mrs. Ada Button, Mrs. Catherine Pettibone, Mrs. Nellie Green of Walled Lake, Mrs. Grace Button, Mrs. Belle McCracken, Mrs. Alice Bigelow, Mrs. Mae Howitt of Detroit, Irma Durfee, Mrs. Mary West of Novi, Mrs. Stella West of Milford and Mrs. Irma Shaw.
